XXVII. When the mayor has received the names of the persons so elected, or when he himself has declared persons elected as aforesaid, he shall forthwith cause a list of all such persons, with the names of the wards for which they are elected, to be published.

XXVIII. Of the persons so elected as hereinbefore mentioned, the councillor in each ward who shall have been elected by the smallest number of votes shall vacate his seat at the expiration of one year from the first Wednesday in July, and in case, by reason of any such councillors having been elected by an equal number of votes, or in the event of the election being an uncontested one, it shall be uncertain which of them shall vacate his seat, the mayor shall cause such question to be determined by lot, and the remaining councillors for each ward shall vacate their seats in like manner, at the expiration of two and three years respectively; and upon the retirement from office of such councillors respectively, they shall be succeeded by councillors who shall be elected as hereinbefore provided, so that at every subsequent yearly election there shall be elected one councillor for each ward, who shall enter upon his office on the first Wednesday in July next after his election, and continue therein for three years; and every retiring councillor shall be eligible for re-election.

LIII. In case the said council shall require to take or use any land with or without the buildings, if any, erected thereon, for the purpose of making, widening, or improving any street, market, or public building; or to dig out or carry away any materials belonging to any person within the said municipality; or to appropriate or make use of any springs, streams, or other supplies of water belonging to any person who shall not be bound by law to allow the council so to do, then and in that case it shall be lawful for the said council, and it is hereby authorized and empowered, to treat and agree with every such person for the purchase or hire, as the case may be, of any such land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water as aforesaid, or for the payment of consequential damages, and generally to enter into such contract or contracts relative to the obtaining of any such land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water, upon such terms and conditions as the said council shall judge expedient. And in case any such person and the said council shall not agree upon the purchase money, hire, or recompense to be respectively given by the one party and accepted by the other, then the said council shall cause to be served upon such person a written notice offering as recompense or compensation whatever sum of money it shall deem sufficient, and requiring such person to state, in writing, to the said council, or to some person by it appointed, within a certain time to be specified in the said notice, not being less than fourteen days from the service of the said notice, whether he is willing to accept the sum therein mentioned or not; and in case the person shall refuse to accept the sum offered, or shall neglect to reply to the said notice, the said council shall, by another notice in writing, call upon such person to refer to arbitration the amount of recompense or compensation to be paid to him by the said council, and for that purpose to transmit to the said council within a certain reasonable time, to be specified in the said lastmentioned notice, the name of some person whom he shall select to be an arbitrator upon such arbitration; and the said council, upon receiving the name of the person so selected, shall nominate a second arbitrator, and shall cause a deed of submission to be prepared, which shall be signed, on behalf of the said municipality, by the town clerk for the time being, and by the person claiming such recompense or compensation as aforesaid, and which shall clearly set forth the matter to be determined by the said arbitrators, together with a power to the said arbitrators before commencing such arbitration to appoint an umpire, and their or his decision shall be final; and the award of such arbitrators or umpire, as the case may be, shall be made a rule of the Supreme, Eastern Districts, or any circuit court of this Colony, and shall be binding and conclusive, and may be pleaded in bar of any action or proceeding at law brought for or on account of the same subject matter. And in case such person as aforesaid claiming such recompense or compensation shall neglect or refuse to name some person to be such arbitrator as aforesaid, or to sign the said deed of submission, it shall be lawful for the said council, and it is hereby authorized, to lodge in some joint-stock bank in the Eastern Province of this Colony the sum of money offered by it, as aforesaid, in its first notice in this section mentioned, for or on account and at the risk of such person aforesaid, who shall at all times be entitled to draw the same out of the said bank as his absolute property; and the said council, upon so lodging the said sum, shall be authorized and entitled to take or use the said land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water in question, as freely as if the said sum had been agreed upon between the parties as the sum to be paid, or had been an order by the arbitrators or umpire under the provisions of this section; and as if all acts by law required for vesting in the said council a sufficient title to the use of or property in the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water aforesaid had been duly done and performed.

LIV. In case the said council shall require to take or use any of the land, with or without the buildings, if any, erected thereon, or to dig or carry away any of the materials, or to appropriate or make use of any springs, streams, or other supplies of water in the last preceding section mentioned, of which the owner shall be absent from the Colony, and not represented therein by any agent duly accredited, or shall not be discoverable, it shall be lawful for the said council, and it is hereby authorized, to cause a notice to be inserted in the Government Gazette and one or more local papers for four successive months, describing, as accurately as may be, the materials, land, buildings, springs, streams, or other supplies of water which are required to be taken or used, and calling by name on the owner of the said land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water, if known, or, if not known, then upon the owner, whoever he may be, to take notice that the said council is ready and willing to treat with the owner, or any person duly authorized by him, for the recompense or compensation to be made or paid by the said council for the said land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water, and requiring such owner to apply within six months from the date of such notice, which shall be the day of its first publication, to the said council, stating the recompense or compensation claimed and if the owner shall so apply within the said period, then the like proceedings in regard to the agreeing for or otherwise determining the recompense or compensation to be respectively given and received shall in all respects be had and taken, which are prescribed in the last preceding section, precisely as if the said owner or owners had from the first been in actual occupation. And in case such owner shall not apply to the said council within the said period, then it shall be lawful for the said council to appoint some competent person, to be approved of by the civil commissioner of the division, to appraise the value of the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water required, and such person shall make oath before some justice of the peace that he hath to the best of his judgment fairly appraised such value; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said council to pay whatever sum such person shall have valued the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water in question at, into the Guardians' Fund, to the credit of the party or parties entitled thereto, subject to the same provisions in all respects which are provided by the Ordinance No. 105, bearing date the 5th July, 1833, in regard to moneys placed in the said fund belonging to the persons absent from the Colony; and the said council, upon so paying the said sum, shall be authorized and entitled to take or use the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water in question, as freely as if the said sum had been agreed upon between the parties as the sum to be paid, and as if all acts by law required for vesting in the said council sufficient title to the use of or property in the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water aforesaid had been duly done and performed.

LV. All acts, matters, or things hereby authorized or required to be done by the council, and all questions that may come before it, shall, except as hereinafter excepted, be done and decided by the majority of councillors who shall be present at any meeting at which not less than seven members of the council shall attend: Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter or affect the provisions of the fortieth and sections of this Act.

LVI. An ordinary meeting of the council shall take place at least once in every four weeks, and all such ordinary meetings shall be open to the public.

LVII. The mayor, or any three councillors, may at any time call a special meeting of the council, provided that he or they cause a notice of the time and place of such intended meeting, specifying the object thereof, and signed by him or them, or by the town clerk, to be served on every councillor, either personally or by leaving the same at his usual place of abode, twelve hours at least before such meeting.

LVIII. At every meeting of council, the mayor, if present, shall preside; in case of his absence, the deputy mayor, if present; and in case of the absence of both mayor and deputy mayor, the councillors present shall elect a chairman from among themselves.

LX. Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be read at the next succeeding meeting, and signed by the person presiding thereat.

LXI. It shall be lawful for the council to appoint out of their own body such and so many committees, either of a general or special nature, and consisting of such number of members as to the council may seem fit, for any purpose which, in the judgment of the council, would be better managed by means of a committee: Provided, always, that the proceedings of every such committee shall be reported to the council. The mayor to be ex-officio member of all such committees.

LXII. It shall be lawful for the council from time to time to appoint fit persons (not being members of the council) to be town clerk and treasurer; and also to appoint such other officers as they shall think necessary for enabling them to carry into execution the provisions of this Act, and to pay all the officers so to be appointed such salaries as the council shall deem reasonable, and, unless it shall be otherwise stipulated in the contract of service, to remove all such officers upon a notice of not less than three months, or, in case of misconduct, without any notice.

LXIII. The said council are hereby empowered from time to time to appoint and employ such number of able-bodied streetkeepers and policemen as shall be required for the protection of the inhabitants and property, streets and public places within the municipality, by day and by night, and to provide all such streetkeepers and policemen with such clothing, arms, ammunition, and weapons, and shall appoint to them such duties and hours and times of duty, and shall also make such rules, orders, and regulations relative to such streetkeepers and policemen and their duties, as shall be deemed fit.

LXIV. All such streetkeepers and policemen shall act as constables while in the execution of their duties under the Act, and are hereby invested with and shall have and enjoy the like powers and authorities, privileges, and immunities, and shall be subjected to such and the like penalties and forfeitures, as constables are invested with or shall or may have or enjoy or are or may be subject or liable to by law.

REVENUES.

LXV. For the purpose of raising the means for making new roads, streets, market-places, bridges, drains, sewers, watercourses, reservoirs, aqueducts, and other waterworks; for the purchase of such lands or erection of such buildings as may be required in or about the execution of the powers hereby given to the council; for the purchase of water-pipes, fire-engines, and appurtenances; for the effecting of all other permanent public works and improvements within the municipality; for the purpose of raising the means for effecting the repairs of all such works as the council is hereby empowered to make or to have made for the maintaining of waterworks, fire-engines, police establishments, markets and pounds, for the payment of salaries and all other ordinary current expenses required to be borne by the municipality, the council shall receive the amount arising from licences issued by the Government to trade within the municipality, other than wine and spirit licences; and shall also have the power to impose, levy, and recover all such market dues, water-rates, pound-fees, and licences as shall be deemed necessary and reasonable, and shall be authorized by any such by-laws as aforesaid; and shall also have the power, as often as shall be deemed necessary, to make and levy, in manner hereinafter provided, a rate and assessment upon all immovable property within the municipality, the value of which to be ascertained in the manner hereinafter provided: Provided that no rate shall be made or levied by the council unless there shall be present at the meeting at which such rate shall be imposed at least fifteen members of the said council; and provided, also, that no rate or assessment shall be imposed upon any immovable property belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, nor on public prisons or police-stations, alms-houses or hospitals, nor on any buildings appropriated to public worship, nor upon burial-grounds, nor upon buildings or lands attached thereto solely appropriated to the purposes of education.

LXVI. All persons owning or occupying property within the limits of the municipality, excepting such property as is hereinafter exempted, shall be liable to be rated on account of such property to the city rate in such manner and to such extent as is hereinafter provided.

LXVII. Within three months after the passing of this Act the council shall appoint one or more competent appraisers, not being members of such council, for the purpose of valuing all and singular the immovable property situate within the municipality.

LXVIII. As soon as any valuation as aforesaid shall be completed it shall lie in the office of the town clerk for the inspection of every owner or occupier of any property included therein who may, upon all lawful days, and at all reasonable times, inspect the same, and take extracts therefrom; and the council shall, by public notice, announce for general information that it will, upon some day and at some hour and place to be fixed in such notice, hold a court for the purpose of hearing and determining objections to such valuation: Provided that such notice shall be published fourteen days at least before the day appointed therein for the holding of such court: Provided, also, that it shall not be necessary, in any suit or proceeding for the recovery of any rate, to prove anything further in the nature of due notice of any such valuation as aforesaid than the publication of the notice aforesaid in one of the newspapers of the municipality.

LXIX. Upon the day and at the place and hour mentioned in such notice, the council shall hold a court, and shall hear all objections which may be urged to any valuation by any owner or occupier or other person on his behalf, and shall inquire into the merits of such objections, and for that purpose may take the oath of any person whom it shall see fit to examine (which oath the presiding member of the council is hereby authorized to administer), and shall confirm or correct any valuation objected to: Provided that the said court may be adjourned from time to time upon the application of any person objecting, who shall show reasonable grounds for not being ready with his proofs, or for the purpose of obtaining further evidence in regard to any case which shall have been partly heard.

LXX. The decision of the council upon any objection to any valuation shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be capable of being reviewed or reversed by any court or proceeding whatsoever.

LXXI. The council shall annually, in the month of February, make an estimate of the amount of money required for the purposes aforesaid, and shall assess the rate accordingly, and give public notice thereof in one or more of the newspapers of the municipality; and shall in like manner, if any further or unforeseen expenditure shall become necessary during the same year, make a supplementary estimate thereof and assess a second or further rate, whereof they shall give public notice in like manner: Provided that it shall not be lawful for the council, in any one year, to levy any rates amounting in the aggregate to more than one penny half-penny in the pound on the value of the immovable property assessed, without obtaining the consent of the majority of the citizens present and entitled to vote at a public meeting to be called for the purpose of considering such rate or rates, of the object and time and place of holding which meeting at least seven days' notice shall be given in manner hereinbefore mentioned: And provided that it shall be lawful for any two or more duly enrolled citizens at such meeting to demand a poll of the citizens entitled to vote, which poll shall be taken on a day to be fixed by the mayor, not later than seven days from the date of the meeting, of which day not less than three days' notice shall be given in one of the papers of the municipality, and which poll shall commence at ten o'clock a.m., and be closed at three o'clock p.m., of such day.

LXXII. Every rate so assessed as aforesaid shall become due and payable upon a certain day, to be fixed by the council, of which day and the amount of which rate the said council shall give at least fourteen days' notice in one of the local newspapers: Provided that it shall not be necessary, in any suit or proceeding for the recovery of any such rate, to prove anything further as to due notice having been given than the publication of the announcement thereof in one of the newspapers aforesaid.

LXXIII. When the council shall have announced in one of the local papers the day on which any rate duly assessed under this Act will become due and payable, it shall be incumbent upon all persons liable to such rate to pay the amount thereof so due by him to any person whom the council may have authorized to receive the same, on or before the day fixed in the said announcement for the payment of the same, on pain of being forthwith liable to legal proceedings for the recovery of the amount.

LXXIV. The council may, in suing for the recovery of rates, proceed against the owner, or in case of his absence from the Colony, his agent or the person receiving the rents for him, or the occupier, either separately or both of them, in one and the same action, each for the whole rate, in any competent court, and recover the same by the judgment and process of such court: Provided that no occupier of any immovable property shall be liable for any rate which had become due and payable thereon at any time before he entered on the occupation thereof; and provided, further, that any person who, as occupier, may have become liable for any rate as aforesaid shall continue to be liable for such rate, although he may have ceased to occupy the property in respect of which the rate had been imposed.

LXXV. The council shall, once in every year, publish in one or more of the newspapers of the municipality a statement of every sum in arrear, and of the property in respect of which the same is due.

LXXVI. The first valuation, to be made as aforesaid, for the purposes of this Act shall subsist and be in force for five years from the date of the first assessment under this Act; at the expiration of which term, and of each successive term of five years, a fresh valuation shall be made, in the same manner as is hereinbefore directed with regard to the first valuation.

LXXVII. In case any new building shall be erected during any such period of five years, or in case of any addition to, or alteration of, any building then already rated, increasing the value thereof, the council shall proceed to have the land and such building thereon valued or re-valued, as the case may be, in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided with regard to the first valuation; and after such valuation is completed the property so valued or re-valued shall be in the same plight and condition as to future rates as if it had been included in the first or then preceding general valuation.

LXXVIII. Instead of the mode aforesaid of ascertaining the value of property within the said municipality to be rated as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the council, by resolution, to adopt the valuation of such property subsisting and in force for the time being made for road purposes by or under the direction of the divisional council of Albany; and such valuation shall thereupon become and be the valuation for the purposes of this Act, just as if it had been made by appraisers appointed by the council as aforesaid.

LXXIX. It shall be lawful for the council, by any by-law as aforesaid, to impose such toll or dues as may be reasonable on all persons making use of any road, bridge, or market-place within the municipality, which the council is hereby empowed to make or maintain, and in case of the non-payment of such tolls or dues, to recover the same by legal process, or in such other manner as may by the by-laws be in that behalf provided.

LXXX. No toll shall be payable by any officer or soldier or member of any volunteer corps, being in proper staff or regimental or military uniform, dress or undress, and on duty, or by any judicial or civil officer, mail-carrier, or other Government servant whilst travelling on public duty; and further that no more than one toll shall be payable in any one day, to be computed from twelve o'clock in one night to twelve o'clock in the next succeeding night, for or in respect of the same vehicle or animal.

LXXXI. The treasurer of the said municipality shall, in books to be kept for that purpose, enter true accounts of all sums of money by him received and paid, and of the several matters in respect whereof such sums shall have been received and paid. All such accounts, with all vouchers and papers relating thereto, together with a full abstract or balance-sheet thereof, shall yearly, at such times as the council shall appoint, be handed by him to the auditors, and to such members of the council as the mayor shall name, for the purpose of being examined and audited: and such abstract or balance-sheet, when found correct, shall be signed by the auditors, and shall be forthwith published by the treasurer in one or more of the newspapers published within the municipality.

LXXXII. Every notice calling a public meeting of the shareholders, and any notice or other document or thing required by this Act to be published, shall, except when otherwise provided, be so published by causing a copy thereof to be inserted in one or more of the newspapers of the municipality, and a copy of the same shall also be affixed in some conspicuous place upon or near the town-hall.

LXXXIII. All fines or penalties imposed by this Act, or by any by-laws made by virtue thereof, or now in force, shall be sued for by civil process in any competent court by the council, by the name of "The Council of the City of Graham's Town," and shall, when recovered, be paid to the treasurer of the municipality for municipal purposes: Provided that no such suit as aforesaid shall be commenced later than three months from and after the date of the act or omission complained of.

LXXXIV. The storing of gunpowder or other explosive or inflamable material shall not be permitted, except in such places as may be approved of and licensed by the town council for that purpose.

LXXXV. So soon as any burial-ground or portion thereof shall become so crowded as to be, in the opinion of two thirds of the council, dangerous to the public health, the council shall be empowered to give six months' notice that burials therein shall cease; and after the expiration of the said term of six months any person causing any interment to be made therein shall be liable to pay a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, to be recovered in any competent court.

LXXXVI. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Graham's Town Municipality Act, 1869."

As soon as any valuation as aforesaid shall be completed it shall lie in the office of the town clerk for the inspection of every owner or occupier of any property included therein who may, upon all lawful days, and at all reasonable times, inspect the same, and take extracts therefrom; and the council shall, by public notice, announce for general information that it will, upon some day and at some hour and place to be fixed in such notice, hold a court for the purpose of hearing and determining objections to such valuation: Provided that such notice shall be published fourteen days at least before the day appointed therein for the holding of such court: Provided, also, that it shall not be necessary, in any suit or proceeding for the recovery of any rate, to prove anything further in the nature of due notice of any such valuation as aforesaid than the publication of the notice aforesaid in one of the newspapers of the municipality.

LXIX. Upon the day and at the place and hour mentioned in such notice, the council shall hold a court, and shall hear all objections which may be urged to any valuation by any owner or occupier or other person on his behalf, and shall inquire into the merits of such objections, and for that purpose may take the oath of any person whom it shall see fit to examine (which oath the presiding member of the council is hereby authorized to administer), and shall confirm or correct any valuation objected to: Provided that the said court may be adjourned from time to time upon the application of any person objecting, who shall show reasonable grounds for not being ready with his proofs, or for the purpose of obtaining further evidence in regard to any case which shall have been partly heard.

LXX. The decision of the council upon any objection to any valuation shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be capable of being reviewed or reversed by any court or proceeding whatsoever.

LXXI. The council shall annually, in the month of February, make an estimate of the amount of money required for the purposes aforesaid, and shall assess the rate accordingly, and give public notice thereof in one or more of the newspapers of the municipality; and shall in like manner, if any further or unforeseen expenditure shall become necessary during the same year, make a supplementary estimate thereof and assess a second or further rate, whereof they shall give public notice in like manner: Provided that it shall not be lawful for the council, in any one year, to levy any rates amounting in the aggregate to more than one penny half-penny in the pound on the value of the immovable property assessed, without obtaining the consent of the majority of the citizens present and entitled to vote at a public meeting to be called for the purpose of considering such rate or rates, of the object and time and place of holding which meeting at least seven days' notice shall be given in manner hereinbefore mentioned: And provided that it shall be lawful for any two or more duly enrolled citizens at such meeting to demand a poll of the citizens entitled to vote, which poll shall be taken on a day to be fixed by the mayor, not later than seven days from the date of the meeting, of which day not less than three days' notice shall be given in one of the papers of the municipality, and which poll shall commence at ten o'clock a.m., and be closed at three o'clock p.m., of such day.

LXXII. Every rate so assessed as aforesaid shall become due and payable upon a certain day, to be fixed by the council, of which day and the amount of which rate the said council shall give at least fourteen days' notice in one of the local newspapers: Provided that it shall not be necessary, in any suit or proceeding for the recovery of any such rate, to prove anything further as to due notice having been given than the publication of the announcement thereof in one of the newspapers aforesaid.

LXXIII. When the council shall have announced in one of the local papers the day on which any rate duly assessed under this Act will become due and payable, it shall be incumbent upon all persons liable to such rate to pay the amount thereof so due by him to any person whom the council may have authorized to receive the same, on or before the day fixed in the said announcement for the payment of the same, on pain of being forthwith liable to legal proceedings for the recovery of the amount.

LXXIV. The council may, in suing for the recovery of rates, proceed against the owner, or in case of his absence from the Colony, his agent or the person receiving the rents for him, or the occupier, either separately or both of them, in one and the same action, each for the whole rate, in any competent court, and recover the same by the judgment and process of such court: Provided that no occupier of any immovable property shall be liable for any rate which had become due and payable thereon at any time before he entered on the occupation thereof; and provided, further, that any person who, as occupier, may have become liable for any rate as aforesaid shall continue to be liable for such rate, although he may have ceased to occupy the property in respect of which the rate had been imposed.

LXXV. The council shall, once in every year, publish in one or more of the newspapers of the municipality a statement of every sum in arrear, and of the property in respect of which the same is due.

LXXVI. The first valuation, to be made as aforesaid, for the purposes of this Act shall subsist and be in force for five years from the date of the first assessment under this Act; at the expiration of which term, and of each successive term of five years, a fresh valuation shall be made, in the same manner as is hereinbefore directed with regard to the first valuation.

LXXVII. In case any new building shall be erected during any such period of five years, or in case of any addition to, or alteration of, any building then already rated, increasing the value thereof, the council shall proceed to have the land and such building thereon valued or re-valued, as the case may be, in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided with regard to the first valuation; and after such valuation is completed the property so valued or re-valued shall be in the same plight and condition as to future rates as if it had been included in the first or then preceding general valuation.

LXXVIII. Instead of the mode aforesaid of ascertaining the value of property within the said municipality to be rated as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the council, by resolution, to adopt the valuation of such property subsisting and in force for the time being made for road purposes by or under the direction of the divisional council of Albany; and such valuation shall thereupon become and be the valuation for the purposes of this Act, just as if it had been made by appraisers appointed by the council as aforesaid.

LXXIX. It shall be lawful for the council, by any by-law as aforesaid, to impose such toll or dues as may be reasonable on all persons making use of any road, bridge, or market-place within the municipality, which the council is hereby empowed to make or maintain, and in case of the non-payment of such tolls or dues, to recover the same by legal process, or in such other manner as may by the by-laws be in that behalf provided.

LXXX. No toll shall be payable by any officer or soldier or member of any volunteer corps, being in proper staff or regimental or military uniform, dress or undress, and on duty, or by any judicial or civil officer, mail-carrier, or other Government servant whilst travelling on public duty; and further that no more than one toll shall be payable in any one day, to be computed from twelve o'clock in one night to twelve o'clock in the next succeeding night, for or in respect of the same vehicle or animal.

LXXXI. The treasurer of the said municipality shall, in books to be kept for that purpose, enter true accounts of all sums of money by him received and paid, and of the several matters in respect whereof such sums shall have been received and paid. All such accounts, with all vouchers and papers relating thereto, together with a full abstract or balance-sheet thereof, shall yearly, at such times as the council shall appoint, be handed by him to the auditors, and to such members of the council as the mayor shall name, for the purpose of being examined and audited: and such abstract or balance-sheet, when found correct, shall be signed by the auditors, and shall be forthwith published by the treasurer in one or more of the newspapers published within the municipality.

LXXXII. Every notice calling a public meeting of the shareholders, and any notice or other document or thing required by this Act to be published, shall, except when otherwise provided, be so published by causing a copy thereof to be inserted in one or more of the newspapers of the municipality, and a copy of the same shall also be affixed in some conspicuous place upon or near the town-hall.

LXXXIII. All fines or penalties imposed by this Act, or by any by-laws made by virtue thereof, or now in force, shall be sued for by civil process in any competent court by the council, by the name of "The Council of the City of Graham's Town," and shall, when recovered, be paid to the treasurer of the municipality for municipal purposes: Provided that no such suit as aforesaid shall be commenced later than three months from and after the date of the act or omission complained of.

LXXXIV. The storing of gunpowder or other explosive or nflamable imaterial shall not be permitted, except in such places as may be approved of and licensed by the town council for that purpose.

LXXXV. So soon as any burial-ground or portion thereof shall become so crowded as to be, in the opinion of two thirds of the council, dangerous to the public health, the council shall be empowered to give six months' notice that burials therein shall cease; and after the expiration of the said term of six months any person causing any interment to be made therein shall be liable to pay a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, to be recovered in any competent conrt.

LXXXVI. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Graham's Town Municipality Act, 1869."

Cape Commercial Bank.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

1. THE Shareholders of the Cape Commercial Bank will see from the Accounts which will be now submitted to them that the Business of the Bank during the year ending the 30th of June, 1869, has not been as large or as profitable as they may have hoped and expected.

2. The Gross Receipts of the year (including £179 4s. 4d., Dividends from Insolvent Estates) amount to £11,702 7s. Deducting from this sum of £11,702 7s. Interest paid and due to Customers, £3,289 15s 6d., together with the working expenses of the Bank and Government Duties, £2,905 15s. 9d., making in the whole £6,195 11s. 3d, there remains as the Net Profits of the year a sum of £5,506 15s. 9d.

3. The embarrassements of certain Customers long connected with this Bank have terminated in Losses which your Directors estimate at £3,500. These Losses, together with the continued depression of Trade, and consequent reduction of Profits, prevent your Directors from declaring a Dividend at a higher rate than 5 per Cent. per Annum upon the paid-up Capital. This Dividend will require the sum of £3,600, leaving a Balance of £1,906 15s. 9d. to the Credit of Profit and Loss,—from which Balance, however, must, under Section 43 of the Trust Deed, be deducted a sum of £600, being the Interest upon the sum of £10,000 in the said Section mentioned. This leaves the sum of £1,306 15s. 9d. as the Net Balance to the Credit of Profit and Loss upon the year's transactions.

4. In order to write off at once the Losses already mentioned, estimated at £3,500, your Directors propose to transfer from the Dividend Protecting Fund the sum of £2,193 4s. 3d., which, with the Balance of £1,306 15s. 9d. at the Credit of Profit and Loss, will effect that desirable object.

5. Finding it impossible, consistently with due care and caution in reference to the paper sent in for discount, to employ the large cash balances in the hands of the Bank, your Directors felt called upon to reduce considerably the amount held as Fixed Deposits. The Fixed Deposits at the close of the year ending the 30th June, 1868, were £55,195 15s. 10d. and at the close of the year just concluded were £31,275 0s. 6d., which latter sum is held at a low rate of interest. The same considerations which prompted the diminution of the amount and the reduction of the interest of Fixed Deposits rendered it necessary to reduce the interest upon Current Accounts. The result of these measures has been that whilts in the year before last the interest paid and due by the Bank was £5,030 17s. 5d., it was last year £3,289 15s. 6d.

6. Your Directors are gratified in being able to report that the London Agency of the Bank works in a very satisfactory manner.

7. The Directors who now retire by rotation are Messrs J. C. BERRANGE, D. A. DE VILLIERS, and J. J. HOFMEYR, and as they have been severally nominated for re-election, and as no other Candidates have been proposed, the customary ballot will be merely formal.

8. The Dividend of 6s. per Share will be payable upon and after the 15th instant.

J. C. BERRANGE, Chairman.

MUTUAL
Life Assurance Society
OF THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

REPORT of the Directors at the Twenty-fourth Annual General Meeting of Members, held in the Society's Hall, on MONDAY, the 5th July, 1869.

THE Directors of this Society, in submitting their usual Annual Statement, are gratified in being able again to report favourably of the results of the past year.

Compared with the Accounts last submitted, there is this year an increase of £1,446 8s. 6d. in the Premiums received, and an increase of £1,083 7s. in Interest on Loans. The total income of this year exceeds that of last by £2,565 14s. 3d.

The claims on the Society during the past year, as compared with those of the preceding year, show a decrease of £4,950 0s. 7d.

As compared, therefore, with the year 1867–'68, the result of the year 1868–'69 is extremely satisfactory, as the receipts both in Premiums and Interest on Loans have largely increased, whilst in the claims on the Society in consequence of deaths there has been a large decrease.

In 1864–'65 the Policies were 1,889 in number, effecting Insurances to the amount of £1,212,651, and the total income was £44,016. In 1867–'68 the Policies numbered 2,225, the amount insured was £1,432,966, and the total income £48,958. In 1868–'69 the Policies numbered 2,347, the amount insured was £1,494,707, and the total income £51,523 15s. 5d.

The Directors, therefore, feel that they may well congratulate the Members upon the sure and steady growth of the Society in its resources, as well as on the hold which it appears to have taken on the confidence of the Public.

This Society has been established Twenty-five Years. It has grown to a size scarcely contemplated, and the interests involved have now become very large. No rigid investigation by any party unconnected with the Society of the tables and calculations on which the division of Profits has been made has taken place since the first division of Profits, now nineteen years ago and five years after the establishment of the Society. The Directors have every confidence in their local Actuary; but they feel assured that in submitting all their calculations and tables on which their divisions of profits have been made to the most rigid scrutiny of some Actuary unconnected with this Society, they would be anticipating the wishes of the Members.

The Directors accordingly, through Mr. A. S. ROBERTSON, formerly Chairman of this Society, and now in Britain, resolved to submit their accounts and divisions for the scrutiny of some Actuary in Great Britain, who should be both well qualified for the work and who from his standing in the profession, should command the confidence of the Members and of the Public in his opinions and reports. They, therefore, wrote to Mr. ROBERTSON, and are happy to be able to state that that gentleman, still feeling, as he has always done the deepest interest in the Society, readily expressed his willingness to co-operate with the Directors. He has put himself in communication with, and has engaged the services of, an Actuary of first-class reputation connected with one of the leading Life Assurance Societies in Scotland; and this gentleman has intimated, through Mr. ROBERTSON, what returns, tables, and accounts he would require in order to enable him to report on the position of the Society. These statements are now in course of preparation, and will, as soon as they can be completed, be forwarded to Mr. ROBERTSON. The Directors feel assured that in taking this step, although the investigation may be attended with some expense, their action will meet with the hearty approval of the Members of the Society.

It is recommended that a similar amount to that voted at the last Annual Meeting be awarded to the Directors and Auditors for their services.

It will devolve on this Meeting to re-elect Messrs. BELL, HULL, and MYBURGH, as Directors who have been the only Members nominated; also to appoint two Auditors in the room of Messrs. HERMAN and HOFMEYR, who are eligible for re-election.

CHARLES BELL, Chairman.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING.

On the motion of Mr. R. WILSON, seconded by Mr. J. B. SMITHERS, Mr. C. BELL took the Chair.

Notice calling the Meeting and the Report and Statement of the Directors having been read,—It was moved by Mr. R. AYLIFF, seconded by Mr. G. MOLLER, and carried unanimously: "That the satisfactory Report and Statement now read be adopted, entered in the Minutes, and printed."

It was moved by Mr. J. A. TRUTER, seconded by Mr. C. H. MARTING, and carried unanimously: "That the retiring Directors be re-elected."

It was moved by Mr. E. G. ASPELING, seconded by Mr. O. J. HORAK: "That the retiring Auditors be re-elected."

It was moved by Rev. GEORGE MORGAN, seconded by Mr. R. WILSON, and carried unanimously: "That the thanks of the Meeting be tendered to the Directors, Auditors, Medical and other Officers of the Society for their services during the past year."

A vote of thanks to the Chairman having been proposed and carried, the Meeting closed.

Manager and Secretary.—William Cleland.

This Company having a Revenue from Premiums alone of One Hundred and Forty Thousand Pounds per Annum, is in a position to transact every description of LIFE ASSURANCE on as favourable terms as any other Company of equal standing.

Holders of Life Policies on the profit scale, who may hereafter fill confidential situations and require to be guaranteed, may secure considerable reductions in their life premiums, by making their life policies contingent on the continuance of fidelity.

Three fourths of the Profits are divisible amongst the Policy-holders on the "Profit Scale of Premiums," affording the advantages of Mutual Assurance, with the further security of a large subscribed capital, the prudent employment of which gives a greater ratio of increase to business and to profits than a purely Mutual Society can achieve.

Assurances are granted for £10,000 on a single life.

Premiums may be paid in one sum, or yearly, or by half-yearly, or quarterly instalments.

Policies upon which five years' payments have been made, are purchased by the Society or the Policy-holders, if unable to continue paying, may receive such Policies in exchange (on which no further payment is required), equivalent to the then value of the Premiums already paid.

On Policies amounting to £200 and upwards for the whole of life, one-half of the Premium may remain unpaid at Interest for five years.

No extra Premium charged for voyage to and residence in any part of Europe, New Zealand, Australia (except at the "Diggings,") the Cape Colony, or British America.

This is the only Society transacting Life Assurance with Fidelity Guarantee, whose Policies of Guarantee are authorised (by Special Act of Parliament) to be accepted by Government.

The Guarantee Policies of this Society are accepted by the Treasury, Poor Law Board, and other public departments, and by the leading London and Provincial Joint-Stock and Private Banks, the principal Railway Companies, Life and Fire Offices, Public Companies, Institutions, and Commercial Firms throughout the Kingdom.

Immediate Annuities payable during the whole of Life may be purchased on the following Scale; Annuities granted at the undermentioned Agents for every £100 of Purchase Money.

Kaapsche Handelsbank.

VIJFTIENDE JAARLIJKSCHE VERSLAG.

1. DE Aandeelhouders der Kaapsche Handelsbank zullen zien uit de Rekeningen, die hun zullen worden voorgelegd, dat de bezigheid der Bank, gedurende het jaar, eindigende op 30 Junij, 1869, niet zoo groot of zoo voordeelig geweest is als zij wellicht mogen gehoopt en verwacht hebben.

2. De Bruto ontvangsten van het jaar (met inbegrip van £179 4s. 4d. aan Dividenden uit Insolvente Boedels) beloopen £11,702 7s. 0d.; van deze som (£11,702 7s. 0d.) aftrekkende: Renten betaald en verschuldigd aan Klanten, £3,289 15s. 6d., benevens de Kosten van het werk der Bank, en Gouvernements Belastingen, £2,905 15s. 9d., een geheel uitmakende van £6,195 11s. 3d., blijft er als Netto Winsten van het jaar, eene som van £5,506 15s. 9d.

3. De ongelegenheden van zekere Klanten, lang verbonden met deze Bank, zijn geëindigd in verliezen, welke uwe Direkteuren schatten op £3,500;—deze verliezen in verband met de aanhoudende gedruktheid des handels en de gevolgelijke vermindering van winsten beletten uwe Direkteuren een hooger Dividend dan 5 percent per jaar op het gestorte Kapitaal te verklaren. Dit Dividend zal de som van £3,600 vereischen, een Saldo van £1,906 15s. 9d. overlatende op het Credit van Winst en Verlies; van welk Saldo echter, krachtens Artikel 43 der Acte van Overeenkomst, eene som van £600 moet worden afgetrokken, zijnde de renten op de som van £10,000, in gemelde Artikel genoemd. Dit laat de som van £1,306 15s. 9d. als het Netto Saldo op het Credit van Winst en Verlies op de transactien van het jaar.

4. Ten einde met een de reeds gemelde Verliezen, op £3,500 geschat, af te schrijven, stellen uwe Direkteuren voor, om van het Dividend Beschermings Fonds de som van £2,193 4s. 3d. over te brengen, welke met het Saldo van £1,306 15s. 9d. op het Credit van Winst en Verlies, dat wenschelijk doel uitvoeren zal.

5. Het onmogelijk vindende, bestaanbaar met de zorg en voorzigtigheid met betrekking tot het Papier, ingezonden om gedisconteerd te worden, de groote Kontante Saldos in het bezit der Bank te gebruiken, gevoelden uwe Direkteuren zich geroepen, het bedrag als Vaste Deposita gehouden aanmerkelijk te verminderen. De Vaste Deposita waren op het einde van het jaar, eindigende met 30 Junij, 1868, £55,195 15s. 10d., en op het einde van het pas verloopen jaar £31,275 0s. 6d., welke laatste som tegen eenen lagen rentekoers gehouden wordt. Dezelfde beschouwingen, die tot de verminderingen van het bedrag bewogen, en de verlaging der Renten op Vaste Deposita maakten het noodzakelijk om de Renten op Loopende Rekeningen te verminderen. Het gevolg dezer maatregelen is geweest, dat, terwijl in het voorlaatste jaar, de Renten betaald en verschuldigd door de Bank £5,030 17s. 5d. bedroegen, dezelve verleden jaar £3,289 15s. 6d. waren.

6. Uwe Direkteuren kunnen met genoegen berigten, dat het Londensche Agentschap van de Bank op eene zeer voldoende wijze werkt.

7. De Direkteuren, die nu bij beurtwisseling aftreden, zijn de Heeren J. C. BERRANGE, D. A. DE VILLIERS, en J. J. HEPBURN, en daar zij alle drie benoemd zijn tot herkiezing, terwijl geene andere kandidaten voorgesteld zijn, zal de gewone ballotage slechts formeel zijn.

8. Het Dividend van Zes Shillings per Aandeel zal betaalbaar zijn van en na den 15den Julij.

Kaapstad, 7 Julij, 1869.

J. C. BERRANGE, Voorzitter.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 203, 1869.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
12th July, 1869.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the republication of the Sailing Directions for Algoa Bay and Recif Lighthouse, published by Government Notice No. 347 of 1864, the same having undergone certain corrections and alterations by FRANCIS SKEAD, R.N., Harbour Master of Algoa Bay.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

AFRICA—SOUTH EAST COAST.

Cape Recif Lighthouse:

Latitude of	34°	01′	44″	S.
Longitude, East of Greenwich...	25	42	12	E.
Longitude, East of Cape Observatory	0	28	54

ALGOA BAY.

Variation, 29° 30′ W.—Bearings Magnetic, Distances Nautic Miles.

Cape Recif.—In making Cape Recif from the west, the hummock marked on the chart Recif Hillock (being higher than the lighthouse) is often plainly seen some time before the latter is made out. In approaching the land from the south, Cape St. Francis has been mistaken for Cape Recif, but they may be distinguished by the hummock abovementioned, which shows from a great distance as the termination of the coast line in that direction, and by a remarkable stripe of bare white sand of considerable extent, immediately to the west of the hummock, extending horizontally, and showing as a beach. They may also be distinguished by the bearing of the Cockscomb Mountain, which bears about N.E. ¼ N. from Cape St. Francis, but N.N.W. ½ W. from Cape Recif.

The lighthouse is a stone tower, painted with alternate horizontal white and red bands.

It exhibits from sunset to sunrise throughout the year a white light, revolving once in a minute; and, being 90 feet above the sea-level, is visible from seaward in clear weather about 15 miles, when it bears between E. and S.W. ½ S., that is including 20½ points of the horizon, but within the bay, between the bearings of S.W. ½ S. and S. by W., it shows red, to warn ships of too near an approach to the Dispatch or Roman Rock.

Thunderbolt Reef.—This dangerous detached reef lies about three quarters of a mile south-west by south of the pitch of the cape, and the sea very generally breaks heavily upon the jagged rocks of which it is composed, which are often plainly seen; but at high water, and in fine weather, this may not occur. There is a decided indraught towards this reef and the pitch of the cape, and no sailing vessel should attempt to approach either (except with a commanding breeze) within the distance of two or two and a half miles. It has received its name from Her Majesty's Steam Vessel Thunderbolt, which struck upon its N.E. edge in attempting to go between it and the cape in fine and clear weather, and with difficulty reached the beach of Port Elizabeth, where she sank, and her wreck still remains.

The soundings about the cape and reef decrease very suddenly from ten fathoms, and if there be any doubt as to the exact distance off shore, a steamer should slacken speed, so to obtain accurate soundings in rounding the cape, and not go into less than twelve fathoms, by night or day.

At Night.—In coming from the westward no vessel should make the light bearing to the southward of east; but should she from any cause have fallen to the northward, she must before arriving within five miles of the light haul out till it bears east, when an E.S.E. course may be steered till the light bears N. by W., then E.N.E. till it bears N.W., after which the course may be altered to N.N.E., taking care not to bring the light to the southward of S.W. until the harbour light be opened. Until the Cape Recif light is brought on a N.W. bearing, a depth not less than 12 fathoms should be maintained, and the vessel should go sufficiently slow for this purpose.

Indraught off Cape Recif.—A strong indraught will often be felt after passing Cape Recif and the Thunderbolt Reef, and allowance must be made for it in shaping the course either inside or outside the Dispatch Rock, particularly for the former, as foul ground stretches out a long way off shore, between the Cape Recif beacon and Beacon Point, and it has occurred that sailing vessels, by not allowing for indraught, have got on shore.

Marks for Dispatch or Roman Rock.—The least water found on this dangerous patch is eight feet. It is steep to the east, but should not be approached within two cables length to the west and the north-west.

When on the shoalest part the Cape Recif beacon is on with the centre of the lighthouse, and the two beacons abreast of the rock are in one. The red buoy formerly moored near this rock having been washed away, and the beacons on shore furnishing a sufficient guide, it has not been thought advisable to renew the buoy.

After rounding Cape Recif at the distance and with the precautions as to depth above mentioned, the Cape Recif beacon will be first seen (if it has not been made out before, and shortly afterwards the two beacons; these lie west 2° south and east 2° north, six tenths of a mile from each other. They are of stone, twenty-five feet high, painted in alternate bands of red and white, surmounted by a ball. The Cape Recif beacon is similar in all respects.

Passage outside the Dispatch or Roman Rock.—Having brought the lighthouse to bear north-west, if intending to pass outside the Dispatch or Roman Rock, steer north, north-east, or any other course rather more north that will admit of the Cape Recif beacon being kept open to the west of the lighthouse, and continue this course until the two beacons are in one, or Beacon Point bears west-north-west, after which you alter course for the anchorage off the town.

Harbour Light.—The light is fixed and visible seaward when bearing between north-west and south-west, one point at each extremity of the arc, viz: from north-west to north-west by west, and from south-west to south-west by west being red and the intermediate six points white. The light is placed at an elevation of 225 feet above the level of high water, and should be seen from the deck of a ship in clear weather at a distance of twelve miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the sixth order.

The tower, which is stone colour and fifty-five feet from base to vane, stands twenty-five yards south half east from the Donkin Monument.

Cautions.—As it is possible that, in consequence of its elevation, this light may be seen in some states of the atmosphere by vessels coming from the eastward before the revolving light on Cape Recif, care should be taken not to bring it to the southward of west until Cape Recif light be clearly distinguished: which it will be immediately it is above the horizon, by its greater brilliancy, as well as by its revolving once a minute.

A vessel steering a north-north-east course, after rounding Cape Recif, as above directed, will first make the harbour light bearing north-west showing red. This line leads about 1½ cables northward of the Roman rock. She should then stand on (taking care not to open the red light of Cape Recif) until she opens the white light bearing north-west by west, when, with a fair wind, she may steer directly for the light; or, with a contrary wind she may heel up and work to windward for the anchorage, taking care to tack to the southward directly she opens the coloured light. A vessel coming from the eastward has only to steer direct for the white light, which will be visible between the bearing of north-west by west and south-west by west.

Inside the Dispatch Rock.—There is seldom an advantage gained in passing between the Dispatch Rock and the mainland, and no large ship should attempt it; but if in fine weather, or under any necessity, the route be chosen, steer as follows: Having brought the lighthouse, as before, to bear north-west, and approached it on that bearing to a distance of one and a half miles, in fourteen fathoms water, steer north for about two and a half miles (paying attention to indraught), when look out to open the Cape Recif beacon to the east of the lighthouse and to keep it open. These marks, open in that way, will carry you to the west of the Dispatch or Roman Rock, the least depth being six fathoms. Having brought the two beacons in one, and again opened them some distance on the other side, steer for the anchorage off the town, taking care not to approach Beacon Point (which is low and sandy, and terminates in rugged rocks) nearer than a quarter of a mile.

Strutt's Reef, with 15 feet water at low spring-tides, covers an area of about 50 square yards, and lies to the southward of the southernmost part of the anchorage ground, and three cables from the nearest land, with the following marks and bearings:—

Waterpipe and Reservoir House in line with the two southernmost houses of the town, W. ½ N. 3¾ cables.
Scotch Church Spire in line with the Square Tower of St. Mary's Church, N.W.
Bird Rock, S.S.E.
Harbour Light, N.W. ½ W.

To clear this reef do not shut in the tower of the Mosque (which is red) with the north end of the Breakwater, nor open the tower of the Grey Institute to the south-westward of the Harbour Lighthouse, in approaching or leaving the anchorage, which will lead clear in not less than 25 feet water at lowest springs.

Anchorage off Port Elizabeth.—An inner anchorage off the town and beach of Port Elizabeth, in about six fathoms, with a bottom of grey sand over clay, may be taken up; the south-east angle of Fort Frederick bearing west ½ north, and the Bird Rock (Beacon Point) south ¾ east.

An outer one, equally good for large vessels, in eight fathoms, similar bottom, with the above objects bearing respectively west ½ south and south by west.

The Port Captain determines the berths for merchant vessels, and ships of war need only take the precaution in the summer season, when east and south-east gales may be expected, to anchor with plenty of room to veer. The holding ground is good, and, with the ordinary ground tackle of ships of war, there is no danger in riding out these gales.

Landing at Port Elizabeth.—Under the shelter of the Breakwater there is landing for boats in almost all weathers, but care must be taken not to cross a a bar which has formed between the north end of the Breakwater (upon which the sea at times breaks dangerously) and the end of the Port Elizabeth jetty. Boats should pass between the north red buoy off the jetty and the jetty end before steering for the Breakwater stairs. A green light will shortly be shown at the Port Elizabeth jetty end, as a guide to boats landing during the night.

Water and refreshments are easily procured at Port Elizabeth at moderate prices, and leaky and dismasted ships are sometimes hove down, repaired, and refitted at their anchorage off the town. It is the practice of merchant vessels regularly trading there for wool cargoes to moor on arrival, and to strike their topgallant masts and unbend their sails. They are found with ground tackle superior to ordinary merchant vessels, and ride out in safety the summer gales from the south-east.

St. Croix Island was so named by Bartholomew Diaz, the first European who landed upon it. Its upper parts are nearly bare rock, and it is steep to the north-east, but less so on the opposite side, where some stunted vegetation grows.

Numerous penguins and gulls resort there, and it is occasionally used for a temporary stopping place by sealers when in search of seals, which frequent the adjacent rocks,—principally the one called Jaheel Island.

There is fair anchorage under St. Croix Island in ten fathoms, sandy bottom, with the west peak bearing south by east about three cables from the shore. In this position the heavy tumbling sea which is met in in east and south-east gales is considerably broken, but the extent of sheltered anchorage is confined to a small space by the shape of the Island, whose length points to these winds. It has been suggested that this should be the general anchorage of Algoa Bay, but that off Port Elizabeth is preferable for communication with the mainland, since it is often found that the surf abreast the Island and at the mouth of the Zwartkop River is high and dangerous after the prevalence of south-west winds, and continues so for a longer period than on the Port Elizabeth beach. There is also fair anchorage on the east side of the Island, in ten or twelve fathoms, for one or two vessels during N.W. gales.

Bird Bank lies about nine miles west by south ½ south from the Cape Recif lighthouse. It is named after its first discoverer, the master of a merchant vessel, who reported having seen breakers there in 1812. Although not exactly a danger impeding the safe navigation of the bay, it should be stated that its existence had been for many years disbelieved, until H.M.S. Hydra, whilst engaged in the survey of the bay in 1855, observed very heavy breakers upon it, and steamed round them as closely as prudent. The weather was fine at that time, but a long swell prevailed, the effect of a previous gale from the south-west. The Hydra subsequently anchored upon it in ten fathoms, and lost the anchor and chain. It is about a mile in extent, and composed of foul ground, carrying from six to ten and fourteen fathoms of water.

Winds and Weather.—Easterly and south-east gales which alone are to be apprehended in Algoa Bay, occur in the summer months, from October to April; the worst usually happening during those two months, that is at the commencement and close of the season. In the remainder of the year, the wind seldom or never blows from these quarters, except in rare instances, when what is called a black south-easter comes on, with rain and thick weather, of which the appearance of the sky and sea gives sufficient warning.

The approach of the summer gales is to a certain extent foretold by the irregular oscillations of the barometer, which, although constantly high in comparison to what it would be under similar circumstances in westerly winds, falls before the increase of wind a damp cold air prevails, and there is a constant hazy appearance about the horizon, the upper part of the sky remaining clear. When the Port Office, where a barometer is kept, signals to prepare for foul weather, sailing vessels with doubtful ground tackle should get under way, making their first tack towards St. Croix Island.

With the gale at its height a heavy breaking sea rolls in, but it has been observed that with plenty of cable ships ride easily; and from the strong eddy current with prevails near the shore during these gales, it is probable that a powerful undertow assists to relieve the strain by oblique action off shore.

Tides.—The tides are often irregular, being acted upon by the wind; their highest rise is about five feet, and the surface stream is uncertain in direction, and inappreciable.

Passage inside the Dispatch Rock by Night.—It is strongly recommended that no vessel should attempt to pass to the west of the Dispatch or Roman Rock by night, as the soundings are irregular, and no directions that may be given with that view could lessen the risk incurred.

The Coast.—From the Sunday's River eastward, the coast is formed by an unbroken chain of sand-hills, which extend inland 1 mile to 1½ miles. Many of these hills rise to the height of 350 to 450 feet above the sea, and are quite bare.

The first break in this sandy feature of the sea coast occurs at Woody Cape, 22 miles from the Sunday's River, and N.N.E. ¾ E., nearly 5 miles from the Bird Island lighthouse. At this spot the sand-hills are covered with dark bushes; they present to seaward a series of decayed sandstone cliffs, fronted by a beach of rugged rock, which extends along shore for two miles, when the sand-hills are again met with, though not so high nor so bare as those to the westward. These reach as far as Point Padrone, which is also formed by cliffs, similar to those at Woody Cape, with a beach of rugged rock and shingle.

Along the whole extent of coast included between the Sunday's River and Point Padrone there is great monotony in the appearance of the land. At the back of the sand-hills the country rises into lofty elevations, 1,000 to 1,200 feet above the sea, covered with grass and dense forest jungle intermixed; but there are no remarkable peaks or other objects to distinguish this particular part of the coast.

Woody Cape is only remarkable from a position close in shore; the cliffs are then seen, but from the southward it is not prominent, and can be recognized only by the wooded sand-hills which stand immediately over it.

Point Padrone is also difficult of recognition from seaward, as there is nothing remarkable to denote its position until well in with the shore, either east or west of it, when the cliffs are seen. A bed of rocks, over which, at times, the sea breaks with great fury, project to seaward nearly a mile from it. About 2 miles E. by

Digitized by Google

S. ¼ S. from Point Padrone there is a low sandy point, which, to the distance of a mile, the swell was observed to break heavily. These are the only outlying dangers, the other part of the coast being approachable, even to the back of the surf, in 7 or 8 fathoms; the depths decreasing regularly towards the shore.

Fresh Water.—Fresh water is found at Woody Cape and about Point Padrone, welling out from the base of the sand-hills, just above high-water mark. By digging into the sand above high-water mark, fresh water may be had nearly all the way along this portion of the coast.

Bird Islands.—E. ¼ S. 31 miles from Cape Recif, and S.S.W. ¼ W. nearly 5 miles from woody Cape, lie the Bird Islands, a cluster of low rocky islets, which would be very dangerous to navigation were it not for the lighthouse, which stands on the largest of the group, called Bird Island, a name given by the survivors of the Doddington, East Indiaman, who were wrecked upon it a century age. The lighthouse is seen a long distance in daylight, and has the appearance of a ship under sail. It is not built upon the highest part of the island, but as near as possible to the Doddington Rock. This island is the resort of numerous sea-fowl, and is covered to the depth of several feet by an inferior kind of guano. It is 83 feet in height above the sea, 800 yards long, and 630 yards wide, covering an area of 512,600 square yards. No water is found on it, save what little is left in the hollows of the rocks after rain. Eggs are abundant at seasons, and a very palatable vegetable, not unlike spinach to the taste, grows on it. Fish may be had in plenty.

At about a quarter of a mile to the northward of Bird Island there are two other islets, called Stag and Seal Islands, lying nearly east and west. They are, in reality, but one island, as they are connected at low water; but in fine weather a boat can pass between them at high-water. Outside, or to the north-east of these, a rocky bed, having two and a half and three fathoms over it, extends as far as nearly a mile from the lighthouse, and terminates in a patch of rocks above water, called the North Patch or Roman Rocks.

West of Seal Island are five black rocky islets, separated from it and the reefs which are joined to it by a narrow passage, having a depth of three and a half fathoms. It is during very fine weather only that these islets are not surrounded with heavy breakers.

Light.—The lighthouse on Bird Island is of wood, of pyramidal form, painted white, with a broad black belt in the middle. It is 45 feet in height, and stands on the south side of the Island. It exhibits two fixed white lights, 61 and 51 feet above high-water level, visible in clear weather 10 miles. They are 18 feet apart in horizontal distance, and, when directly over each other, point to the Doddington Rock, upon a S.W. ¼ W. bearing. The lower light is not visible between the bearings of N. by E. and E. by S. from the lighthouse; and the upper light is less bright between the same bearings.

The latitude and longitude of the lighthouse are 33° 56' 27" S, 26° 17' 13" E.

Upon the south-east side of the Bird Island there is a large anchor and an iron gun, in a tolerably good state of preservation. They are relics of the unfortunate Doddington, wrecked in 1755. On the beach were also found old iron hooks, bolts, and sheaves of blocks, portions of the same wreck. Upon the southern side of Stag Island there were two very old anchors, which (to judge from their shape, as well as from their appearance in contrast to the one that belonged to the Doddington, which has been awash for a century) must have lain there two or three hundred years. They are about large enough for a vessel of 150 tons, and probably belonged to some of the early Portuguese navigators, whose career must have been checked at this dangerous cluster of rocks.

West Rock, Doddington Rock, and East Reef.—To the south-eastward of the Bird Island there are three very dangerous rocks, called West Rock, Doddington Rock, and East Reef. The two former are awash, and the latter has 2½ fathoms over it, but the sea is seldom so smooth as not to break upon it. West Rock lies with Bird Island lighthouse E. ¼ S. E. 1¼ miles. From the Doddington the lighthouse bears N.E., ¾ E. nearly 1¼ miles, and from the East Reef N.N.E. ½ E. 1¼ miles. Close round the West and Doddington Rocks the depths are 10 to 12 fathoms, but the East Reef is far more dangerous, having but 2½ and 3 fathoms water upon it, added to which, it covers a space of 300 to 400 yards.

Between these rocks and the islands the soundings are very irregular, between 5½ to 10 fathoms. During heavy weather, a tremendous sea rolls over the whole of this space, producing a surf truly terrific, the sea breaking in 8 and 10 fathoms water all around the group to seaward.

The position assigned to a rock upon it, which it was supposed the Doddington struck, is S.W. ¾ W., nearly 6 miles from the lighthouse. This spot and the ground in the vicinity has been carefully examined and thoroughly sounded over, but no signs of rock or rocky ground could be discovered, the depth of water being 40 to 45 fathoms, upon a bottom of sand, broken shells, and decayed coral. In fact, no danger has been discovered outside a radius of 1½ miles from the lighthouse.

Caution is necessary to give the Bird Island dangers a wide berth in passing, for, should a vessel get amongst them, she might run into certain destruction while trying to avoid a seeming danger, since it is difficult to distinguish between the sea that breaks in 10 fathoms and that which rolls over the reefs, and nothing of human build could hold together half an hour on any part of the cluster during the gale. Altogether, this is one of the most dangerous parts of the coast, especially to a stranger.

Anchorage.—The Bird Island group affords anchorage on the northern side, but the holding ground is not good, and the bottom is uneven. The best anchorage is with the lighthouse in line with the North Patch, in 8 to 10 fathoms water.

With S.E. winds, the lighthouse in line with the boat passage between Stag and Seal Islands, in 10 or 11 fathoms, is a very good spot for shelter, but should the wind come strongly from the westward, it will be found necessary to shift berth to the east, anchoring with the black rocks about in line with Stag Island, or a little open on either side of it, in from 8 to 10 fathoms. From this latter position H.M.S. Geyser drove to sea in a heavy W.S.W. gale, which shows the holding ground to be bad, as she had 75 fathoms of cable out at the time.

Landing.—Vessels that load here with guano usually anchor in this last position, as it is more convenient for their boats to come off with cargo. It frequently happens that there is no landing, the rollers setting in during calm weather as well as in a gale. After these have subsided, care is necessary in landing, as the sea sometimes breaks heavily and unexpectedly right across the entrance to the space between the islands. The boat must be kept well to the eastward, clear of the shoal off the east end of Stag Island. The lighthouse in line with the first or western rock that shows on the white guano patch at the east end of Bird Islands is the best line to pull in upon, as it leads between the breakers on the spit and those off the end of Bird Islands.

Tides and Currents.—In the vicinity of Bird Islands no regular tidal stream was found, but a regular rise occurs. It is high water, full and change, at 3h. 15m., with a rise of 6 feet. This was observed at the Bird Islands in December, 1856. At the anchorage to the northward of the group the current sets in general to the eastward, and at one time, during a strong westerly gale, it ran east at the rate of 1½ knots an hour. It was, however, upon two other occasions of westerly gales, found setting to windward. It is very seldom that anything drifts on the islands, which is singular, especially as Woody Cape is covered with drift-wood and fragments of wreck.

REPORT

Of the Directors of the Equitable Marine Assurance Company at the Twentieth Annual Meeting of Shareholders, held at the Company's Office, Colonial Bank Buildings, on Thursday, 15th July, 1869.

THE Directors have much pleasure in laying before the Shareholders a Statement of the Company's transactions during the past year, and in so doing may congratulate them upon the amount of business done by the Company, notwithstanding the dullness of Trade.

The Income for the past year amounts to £7,896 6s. 6d., made up of the following, viz. :—

Net amount of Premiums	£5,682	16	8
Interest on Loans	2,213	9	10
Total	£7,896	6	6

The Losses during the past year amount to £1,765 11s. 10d , all of which are paid.

The Net Profits on the business of the past year, after paying all Charges, Dividends, Bonds, &c., amount to £2,099 2s. 4d., which may be considered satisfactory.

The Directors have much pleasure in stating that the Agencies both at Port Elizabeth and London continue to be worked successfully.

The Directors, in accordance with the 38th Section of the Trust Deed, now declare a Dividend of 14s. 6d. per Share, or 29 per cent. on the Paid-up Capital.

It is recommended that a similar amount to that voted at last Meeting be set aside as a remuneration to Directors and Auditors.

The Directors who retire on the present occasion are Messrs. J. S. PRINCE, C. S. COLLISON, and CHARLES BARRY; the Auditors, D. MILLS and J. R. MARQUARD, also retire,—all of whom are eligible for re-election.

In accordance with the 41st Section of the Trust Deed, this Meeting will have to declare whether the Company shall be dissolved on the 30th June, 1870, or whether it shall continue for a further period of twenty-one years from that date.

Should the Meeting decide that the Company be continued for another twenty-one years, the Directors recommend that fifteen pounds per Share should be taken from the Profit and Loss Account, now amounting to £29,561 11s. 3d., and added to the Capital Account, amounting to £7,500, making the Paid-up Capital £30,000, which will leave a Balance of £7,061 11s. 3d. to Profit and Loss Account.

The Directors further recommend that the present Trust Deed should remain as at present until the Paid-up Capital and Profits amount to £40,000, when the Profits may be all divided.

JAS. MURISON, Chairman.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING.

After the Advertisement in the Government Gazette of the 22nd June had been read, also a Statement and Balance Sheets,

It was moved by Mr. WM. PORTER, seconded by Mr. J. R. MARQUARD: That the Report now read be adopted and printed. Carried unanimously.

Moved by the Hon. J. BARRY, seconded by Mr. H. LAYARD, and carried: That the Company shall continue for a further period of twenty-one years from 30th June, 1870.

Moved by Mr. LYNAR, seconded by Hon. JOHN BARRY: That the thanks of the Meeting are due to the Directors, Auditors, and Officers for their able management of the affairs of the Company.

Moved by Mr. J. C. HOFMEYR: That the Meeting now proceed to ballot for Directors. On opening the Ballot-box it was found that the retiring Directors and Auditors had been unanimously re-elected.

VICTORIA, bij de Gratie Gods, Koningin van het Verenigde Koningrijk van Groot Brittannie en Ierland, Handhaafster van het Geloof.

NAARDEMAAL uit de petitie van JACOB JOHANNES STEIJTLER, Jun., wonende te Kaapstad, als behoorlijk gemagtigd Agent van Kolonel WILLIAM SHAW, tegen MICHIEL CONNERS, laatst wonende te Kaapstad, aan den Edel Achtbaren Hoofdregter en de andere Regters bij het Hoog Geregtshof van gezegde onze Kolonie ons bij proces verbaal is gebleken, dat de gezegde MICHIEL CONNERS, deugdelijk en regmatig schuldig is aan den gezegden Kolonel WILLIAM SHAW de som van Vijf honderd Ponden Sterling wettig gangbaar geld, met den interest daarop, op en uit krachte van zeker Hijpothekair Verband, gedagteekend den 4den Maart, 1863, gepasseerd, geteekend en geëxecuteerd door den gezegden MICHIEL CONNERS ten faveure van den gezegden Kolonel WILLIAM SHAW.

En naardemaal de gezegde MICHIEL CONNERS in het bezit is van Eigendom in deze Kolonie en op of omtrent den 6den dag van November, 1867, zijn woonhuis te Kaapstad als verongezegd heeft verlaten en uit deze Kolonie naar Engeland is vertrokken met het oogmerk om den gezegden Kolonel WILLIAM SHAW en zijne andere Krediteuren te verhinderen of op te houden, in het ontvangen van betaling voor hunne regtmatige vorderingen en daarmede de daad van Insolvent gaan heeft gepleegd, reden, waarom de gezegde Kolonel WILLIAM SHAW verzocht, dat de Boedel van den gezegden MICHIEL CONNERS moge worden gesekwestreerd ten bate van diens Krediteuren;

En naardemaal ons verder uit proces verbaal blijkt, dat de Edel Achtbare Heer SYDNEY SMITH BELL, als onze Hoofdregter van gezegde onze Kolonie, bij lastgeving onder zijne handteekening, gedateerd den 10den dag van Julij, 1869, den Boedel van gezegden MICHIEL CONNERS heeft geplaatst onder sekwestratie in handen van den Meester van het Hoog Geregtshof, tot dat dezelve vervolgens zou worden verwezen tot sekwestratie of de gezegde Petitionaris zou worden gedeshargeerd.

Zoo is het, dat wij u hierbij gelasten, den gezegden MICHIEL CONNERS te dagvaarden om op den 2den dag van Augustus, 1869, 's voormiddags ten 10 ure, voor de Regters bij het Hoog Geregtshof onzer gezegde Kolonie te Kaapstad te verschijnen, om alsdan en aldaar de redenen op te geven die hij mogt hebben, waarom zijn gezegden Boedel niet bij vonnis van dit Edel Achtbare Hof behoort te worden verwezen ter sekwestratie ten bate zijner Krediteuren; en dat gij alsdan en aldaar dit bevelschrift zult indienen met verslag van al wat daarop door u is verrigt.

Getuige: de Edel Achtbare Heer SYDNEY SMITH BELL, onze Hoofdregter onzer gezegde Kolonie, den dag van Julij, 1869, in het 33ste jaar onzer Regering.

MALMESBURY
Agricultural and Commercial Bank.

Seventh Annual Statement of the Malmesbury Agricultural and Commercial Bank, laid before the Shareholders at the Annual General Meeting, held on the 15th July, 1869.

IN submitting the Report of the past year's transactions your Directors regret to state that they have to deplore the loss of about £800. These losses were chiefly sustained by the Insolvent Estates of A. B. v. N. PIEKARD, of Wolvedans, and D. M. DU TOIT, of Brouwers Kloof. The surrender of the first-named Estate must have surprised the Shareholders as much as it did the Directors. The loss incurred by the surrender of DU TOIT is solely to be attributed to the depreciation of Landed Property (in this case about 30 per cent).

Losses of this nature are therefore unavoidable.

Notwithstanding these several losses, your Directors have much pleasure in stating that the transactions of the past year have been in other respects of such a favourable nature that they are enabled to declare a Dividend of seven shillings per share on the paid-up Capital (being within a fraction of six per cent.), after placing the annual addition of £120 to the Reserve Fund, and defraying charges of Management, Interest on Fixed Deposits, Duty on Note Circulation, Licence, &c.,—and writing off £610 18s. 11d. of bad Bills. A Balance of £120 1s. 2d. will remain, which it is proposed to apply in the following manner, viz.:—£65 as a remuneration to Directors, and the balance of £55 1s. 2d. to be put to Profit and Loss Account.

It will be the duty of the Meeting to elect three Directors in the room of Messrs. D. J. ACKERMAN and J. MULLER, who retire by rotation, but are re-eligible, and also to elect a Director in the room of Mr. J. G. L. CROSER (deceased). As the two former gentlemen have been duly nominated for re-election, and Mr. J. J. ALBERTYN has been nominated to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. CROSER, deceased, the ballot will be purely formal. The Dividend will be payable on and after the 5th August next.

RAPPORT

Van de Direkteuren der Equitable Zeeassurantie Maatschappij op de Twintigste Jaarlijksche Vergadering van Aandeelhouders, gehouden ten Kantore der Maatschappij, in het gebouw der Koloniale Bank, op Donderdag, 15 Julij, 1869.

HET is den Direkteuren zeer aangenaam, den Aandeelhouders een Staat voor te leggen over de zaken der Maatschappij gedurende het afgeloopen jaar en hen daarbij geluk te wenschen met het succes der zaken door de Maatschappij gedaan, niettegenstaande de slapheid in den Handel.

Het Inkomen gedurende het afgeloopen jaar bedroeg £7,896 6s. 6d., opgemaakt als volgt:—

Netto bedrag van Premiën	£5,682	16	8
Interest op Leeningen	2,213	9	10
Totaal	£7,896	6	6

De Verliezen bedroegen verleden jaar £1,765 11s. 10d., en zijn allen betaald.

De netto winsten der transaktiën van dat jaar, na aftrek van alle Kosten, Dividenden, Verbanden, enz., beloopen £2,099 2s. 4d., en mogen bevredigend worden geacht.

Het is den Direkteuren aangenaam te verklaren, dat de Agentschappen, beiden te Port Elizabeth en in Londen, bij voortduring gunstige resultaten opleveren.

Overeenkomstig Artikel 38 van de Akte der Maatschappij, stellen de Direkteuren een Dividend vast van 14s. 6d. per Aandeel, hetwelk gelijk staat met 29 per cent op het gestorte Kapitaal.

Tevens wordt aanbevolen, een gelijk bedrag als ten vorigen jare aan te wijzen als belooning voor Direkteuren en Auditeuren.

De Direkteuren, die bij deze gelegenheid aftreden, zijn de Heeren J. S. PRINCE, C. S. COLLISON, en CHAS. BARRY; de Auditeuren, D. MILLS en J. R. MARQUARD, treden mede af—en allen zijn herkiesbaar.

Overeenkomstig Art. 4 van de Akte der Maatschappij zal deze Vergadering hebben te verklaren, of de Maatschappij op 30 Junij, 1870 zal worden ontbonden, of dat zij zal worden voortgezet voor een nieuw tijdvak van een-en-twintig jaren van dien datum af.

Mogt de Maatschappij besluiten tot voortzetting voor nog een-en-twintig jaren, dan zouden de Direkteuren aanbevelen om vijftien pond per Aandeel te nemen van de Rekening van Winst en Verlies, die thans £29,561 11s. 3d. bedraagt, en te voegen bij de Kapitaal-rekening, bedragende £7,500, om het gestorte Kapitaal te brengen op £30,000, waardoor een saldo van £7,061 11s. 3d., op Rekening van Winst en Verlies overblijft.

De Direkteuren bevelen verder aan, dat de tegenwoordige akte van Overeenkomst onveranderd zal blijven totdat het gestorte Kapitaal £40,000 bedraagt, als wanneer de Winsten allen verdeeld kunnen worden.

JAS. MURISON, Voorzitter.

NOTULEN VAN DE VERGADERING.

Voorgesteld door den Heer LIJNAR, gesekondeerd door den Ed. Heer JOHN BARRY: Dat de Maatschappij dank verschuldigd is aan de Direkteuren, Auditeuren en Beambten voor hun degelijk beheer harer aangelegenheden.

Voorgesteld door den Heer J. C. HOFMEIJR, dat de Vergadering nu zal overgaan tot het ballotteren van Direkteuren. Bij het openen der Ballotage-bus bleek, dat de aftredende Direkteuren en Auditeuren eenstemmig waren herkozen.

Na het voorstellen van een votum van dank aan den Voorzitter, voorgesteld door den Heer WM. PORTER en gesekondeerd door den Heer H. LIJNAR, werd de vergadering opgeheven.

MALMESBURY LANDBOUW EN HANDELSBANK.

Zevende Jaarlijksche Verslag van de Malmesburysche Landbouw en Handelsbank, voorgelegd aan de Aandeelhouders op de Jaarlijksche Algemeene Bijeenkomst, gehouden op den 15den Julij, 1869.

BIJ het indienen van het Rapport van de transakties voor het afgeloopen jaar doet het uwen Direkteuren leed te moeten melden, dat zij het verlies van omtrent £800 hebben te betreuren. Deze verliezen worden voornamelijk geleden ten gevolge der insolventie der Boedels van A. B. VAN N. PICKARD, van Wolvedans, en D. M. DU TOIT, van Brouwerskloof.

De overgave van den eerstgemelden Boedel moet de Aandeelhouders even zeer als de Direkteuren zelven hebben verwonderd. Het verlies, geleden door de overgaven van DU TOIT's Boedel moet alleenlijk worden toegeschreven aan de daling in waarde van het Vastgoed, welke in dit geval omtrent 30 per cent. bedroeg.

Verliezen van dezen aard zijn derhalve onvermijdelijk.

In weerwil van deze verschillende verliezen, doet het de Direkteuren veel genoegen, te kunnen melden, dat de transakties van het afgeloopen jaar, in andere opzigten, van zoo gunstigen aard zijn geweest, dat zij in staat zijn gesteld, een dividend van zeven shillings per aandeel te verklaren op het opbetaalde kapitaal, (betgeen op eene breuk na,) zes per cent uitmaakt, nadat de jaarlijksche bijvoeging van £120 op het Reservefonds is geplaatst, de kosten van bestier, de interest op de vaste Deposita, de regten op de Circulatien der Noten, Licentie, enz., is betaald, en £610 18s. 11d. aan kwade schulden is afgeschreven. Eene balans van £120 1s. 2d. zal in handen blijven, welke voorgesteld wordt op de volgende manier te besteden, nl. £65 als eene beloning aan Direkteuren en het saldo van £55 1s. 2d., om te worden gesteld op de rekening van Winst en Verlies.

Het zal de pligt zijn van de vergadering om drie Direkteuren te verkiezen, in plaats van de Heeren D. J. ACKERMAN en J. MULLER, die volgens beurtwisseling aftreden, maar herkiesbaar zijn, en ook om een Direkteur te verkiezen in plaats van wijlen den Heer J. G. L. CROESER. Daar de twee eerstgenoemde Heeren behoorlijk benoemd zijn en de Heer J. J. ALBERTIJN genominesrd is, om de vakante plaats aan te vullen, welke is opengelaten door het overlijden van den Heer CROESER, zal de bollotage slechts formeel zijn.—Het Dividend zal betaalbaar zijn op en na den 5den Augustus aanst.

BILL

TO

Remove Doubts and to make provision respecting the payment of Railway Sub-guarantee by certain Divisions of the Colony.

(Transmitted to the House of Assembly by His Excellency the Governor.)

WHEREAS by an Act No. 20 of 1857, intituled "An Act for the Construction of a Railway from Cape Town to Wellington," one half of all such sums of money as should be paid or payable by or out of the public revenue of this Colony, upon or by virtue of a guarantee therein mentioned, by the Colonial Government to the joint-stock company which should contract for the construction and working of the said railway, was declared to be a charge, as thereinafter mentioned, upon the immovable property of or belonging to the divisions of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl, and that the municipalities of Cape Town and Green Point should, for the purposes of the said Act, be included in the division of the Cape: And whereas by an Act No. 8 of 1862, intituled "An Act for Constructing a Railway from Wellington to Worcester," it was provided that one half of all such sums of money as should be paid or become payable by or out of the public revenue of this Colony, upon or by virtue of a certain guarantee therein mentioned, and one half of all such sums of money as should be paid or become payable by or out of the public revenue of this Colony upon or by virtue of the guarantee given under the hereinbefore recited Act, No. 20 of 1857, were, by the Act now under recital, declared to be a charge upon the immovable property situated within the divisions of the Cape, including the municipalities of Cape Town and Green Point, Stellenbosch, the Paarl, Tulbagh, Worcester, and Robertson, in the same proportion and in the same manner as if the guarantee last aforesaid were extended in the said recited Act No. 20 of 1857 over the whole line between Cape Town and Worcester; anything in the said recited Act No. 20 of 1857, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas the line of railway by the last hereinbefore recited Act No. 8 of 1862 contemplated has never been, in fact, constructed, and it was intended that the said guarantees in the same Act provided and charged against the said divisions of the Cape, Stellenbosch, the Paarl, Tulbagh, Worcester, and Robertson, should, as to the portions thereof chargeable against the said divisions of Tulbagh, Worcester, and Robertson, be so charged in respect of advantages which it was contemplated that such divisions respectively would derive from the entire line of railway then in contemplation, which was to pass through the said divisions, and that the portion of the burden of the guarantee provided by the said first hereinbefore recited Act No. 20 of 1857, and thereby charged on the said divisions of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl alone, which was by the redistribution of guarantees effected by the lastly hereinbefore recited Act No. 8 of 1862 removed from the said lastnamed divisions and imposed on the said divisions of Tulbagh, Worcester, and Robertson, was so removed in consideration that it was then intended to impose on the said divisions of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl a proportionate part of the new guarantee provided by the said Act No. 8 of 1862, in respect of the new line of railway then projected from Wellington to Worcester, which has never, in fact, become chargeable against the said lastnamed divisions: And whereas no portion of the moneys under or on foot of the said guarantees, chargeable by virtue of the said Act No. 8 of 1862 against the said divisions of Tulbagh, Worcester, and Robertson, has ever been, in fact, levied upon or out of the immovable property in the said divisions: And, whereas it is expedient that the sums of money under the original guarantee, charged by the said Act No. 20 of 1857 upon the immovable property situate in the divisions therein mentioned should be again declared to be a charge upon the said divisions, in like manner as if the same Act had remained unrepealed in whole or in part by the said Act No. 8 of 1862: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. One half of all such sums of money as shall be paid or payable by or out of the public revenue of this Colony upon or by virtue of the guarantee in the said Act No. 20 of 1857 mentioned is hereby declared to be, and the same shall be, a charge, as hereinafter mentioned, upon the immovable property of or belonging to the divisions of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl, including in the said division of the Cape, the municipalities of Cape Town and Green Point, respectively; anything in the said Act No. 8 of 1862 to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. In respect to all such sums of money as shall have been paid or payable by or out of the public revenue of this Colony upon or by virtue of the said guarantee in the said Act No. 20 of 1857 mentioned, on or at any time since the 1st of January, 1867, one half of the same shall be likewise charged and chargeable upon the said immovable property in the said lastmentioned divisions, in like manner as if this Act had been in force on or before the said 1st of January, 1867.

III. Notwithstanding anything in the ninth section of the said Act No. 8 of 1862 contained, it shall no longer, from and after the passing of this Act, be the duty of the divisional councils of the divisions of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl to assess, impose, or levy upon the said immovable property any rates for the raising of the proportion of any moneys by this Act, or any former Act, declared to be recoverable from them, respectively, in respect of the said guarantee, or the expense of collecting the same; but it shall be lawful for the Governor to assess and impose, by proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, on the immovable property in each of the said divisions, such rate as shall, in the opinion of the Governor, be necessary to raise from each of the said divisions the proportion payable by such division under or by virtue of this Act, or of the said Act No. 20 of 1857.

IV. All other the duties imposed on the said divisional councils of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl, respectively, by the said ninth section, and all other enactments in the same section of the said Act No. 8 of 1862 provided, shall remain and be in full force, save such as are hereinbefore repealed.

V. The machinery provided by the tenth section of the said Act No. 8 of 1862 for enabling the Governor to levy, in the contingency therein mentioned, the rates therein mentioned, shall, as to the divisional councils of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl, remain and be in full force for levying rates under this Act, and the eleventh section of the said Act No. 8 of 1862 shall also remain and be in full force.

VI. Every such rate as shall be assessed or imposed by the Governor under or by virtue of this Act, or of the said Act No. 20 of 1857, shall become due and be payable upon some certain day to be fixed by the Governor aforesaid, of which day, and of the amount of the rate to become payable on that day, not less than thirty-one days' previous notice shall be given in the Government Gazette, and the same or similar notice shall also be published and posted in like manner as is provided by the thirty-second section of the Act No. 9 of 1858, in regard to the publication and posting of the notices in that section mentioned, other than the publication thereof in the Government Gazette; but it shall not be necessary, in any suit or proceeding for the recovery or on account of any such rate, to prove anything further relating to the notice or due publication thereof than the publication hereinbefore directed in the Government Gazette.

VII. Immediately upon such publication as aforesaid in the Government Gazette, it shall be the duty of all persons liable to such rate to pay the amount thereof, on or before the day so fixed for the payment thereof, to the civil commissioner of the division in which the property rated is situate, or to such other person as the Governor shall, from time to time, authorize to receive the same.

VIII. The civil commissioner of each such division shall, as soon as may be after the publication of such notice as aforesaid in the Government Gazette, cause a notice in writing also to be given to each person liable to pay such rate as aforesaid, so far as such person shall be ascertainable, by posting the same to the address of such person, so far as such address can be ascertained, through the post office, stating the amount of such rate, and the day on which the same is payable; and every person so liable to pay, and not paying the said rate on or before the day on which the same shall be payable, shall be liable to pay, in addition thereto, the cost of such notice, and any further costs which may be properly incurred in the collection thereof, including a reasonable percentage actually paid to any collector thereof.

IX. In suing for the recovery of any such rate as aforesaid, the action may be brought in the name of the civil commissioner of the division in which the property rated is situate, notwithstanding that the amount may be within the jurisdiction of the resident magistrate of such division, or such suit may be brought in the name of any person duly authorized by the Governor, from time to time, to receive the same, and such suit may be entertained by such resident magistrate, if the amount of the claim shall be within the jurisdiction of his court, and shall be deemed in the nature of a suit upon a liquid demand upon which provisional judgment may be recovered, unless the particular circumstances of the case shall exempt it from such a category, upon such documentary evidence as is sufficient under the provisions of Ordinance No. 9 of 1844, in cases falling under that Ordinance, of the ownership by the person sued of the lands in respect of which he is rated, and production of the valuation of the same lands made under or by virtue of this Act, or the Act No. 9 of 1858, or the said Act No. 8 of 1862, and of the notice in the Government Gazette aforesaid; and in case the suit is in the name of any person other than the civil commissioner aforesaid, then on documentary evidence of his authority to receive the said rate, of which a notice in the Government Gazette in that behalf shall in every suit be deemed sufficient evidence.

X. In suing for the recovery of any such rate as aforesaid, the plaintiff may proceed against the owner or the occupier, either separately or against both of them in one action, each for the entire rate, or such portion thereof as may be unpaid, in any competent court, and recover the same by the judgment and process of such court; but the occupier shall, as against the owner, have the privileges and be liable to the liabilities of occupiers in similar cases under the forty-first section of the said Act No. 9 of 1858.

XI. It shall be the duty of the divisional councils of the Cape, Stellenbosch, and the Paarl, respectively, in addition to the other matters required of them in this Act and the said Act No. 8 of 1862, to furnish to the Colonial Secretary full and accurate accounts of all moneys received by them, respectively, in respect of any of the guarantees provided by the said Act No. 20 of 1857 or the said Act No. 8 of 1862, and of the persons by whom such moneys were paid, or of whom the same were received, respectively, and of the immovable property in respect of which the same was so received, and of the valuation for the time being thereof upon which such moneys may have been paid; and in any levy to be made under or by virtue of this Act in respect of any arrears under the second section of this Act, every payment which shall have been made by any person to any such council as aforesaid, in respect of any demand made by such council for railway sub-guarantee rate, shall be credited to the person who shall have paid the same, or to the owner of the property in respect of which the same shall have been paid; and no person shall, nor shall any immovable property, be again charged in respect of any moneys already paid for or in respect of any demand by any of the said divisional councils for or in respect of any half portion of the moneys which shall have been paid or be payable by or out of the public revenue upon or by virtue of any of the said guarantees in the said Act No. 20 of 1857, or the said Act No. 8 of 1862, on or at any time since the said first day of January, 1867.

XII. From and after the passing of this Act, the said Act No. 8 of 1862 shall, as regards the said guarantee imposed thereby on the said divisions of Tulbagh, Worcester, and Robertson, and the divisional councils thereof, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

II. No stallion above the age of two years which shall hereafter be lawfully impounded shall be released by the owner thereof, or sold out of the pound, without being previously castrated, unless such stallion shall be released under the provisions of the fifth section hereof.

III. Every such stallion not released under the provision of the fifth section hereof shall be castrated by the poundmaster, or by some person employed by him at his own expense, and such poundmaster shall be allowed for the performance of this duty a fee of [ten shillings], to be recovered from the owner of such stallion, if known, or deducted from the proceeds of sale, should such animal be sold out of the pound: Provided, however, that no such fee as aforesaid shall be recoverable from the owner in respect of any animal which shall die in consequence of such castration.

In the Court of the Eastern Districts,
Cape of Good Hope.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

To the Sheriff of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, or his lawful Deputy, Greeting:

WHEREAS upon the Petition to the Honourable EDWARD DWYER, Esquire, and the Honourable CHARLES THOMAS SMITH, Esquire, the Judges of our Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, and Judges of our Supreme Court of our said Colony, of CHARLES HARLAND BELL, of Orange Grove, in the Division of Albany, against JAMES USHER, JAMES's son, lately of the Division of Fort Peddie, and now residing in the Transkeian Territory, it appears to us that the said JAMES USHER, JAMES's son, is justly and truly indebted to the said CHARLES HARLAND BELL in the sum of Eight Hundred Pounds Sterling, with Interest thereon, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, reckoned from the 17th day of February, 1867, upon and by virtue of a certain Mortgage Bond made and executed by or on behalf of the said JAMES USHER, JAMES's Son, on the 17th day of August, 1864, to and in favour of the said CHARLES HARLAND BELL, for the said sum of Eight Hundred Pounds Sterling, and that the said JAMES USHER, JAMES's Son, departed from his residence in the Division of Peddie aforesaid, and with intent to defeat or delay the said CHARLES HARLAND BELL in obtaining payment of his just Debt to him due and owing, and did thereby commit an act of Insolvency; whereupon the said CHARLES HARLAND BELL prayed that the Estate of the said JAMES USHER, JAMES's Son, might be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors;

And whereas, it further appears to us of record that the Estate of the said JAMES USHER, JAMES's Son, was on the 22nd day of July, instant, by order of the Honourable EDWARD DWYER, Esq., one of the Judges of our Supreme Court, and Senior Judge of our said Court of the Eastern Districts, placed under sequestration in the hands of the Master of the Supreme Court, until the same should be thereafter adjudged to be sequestrated, or the said Petition should be discharged:

Now, therefore, we command you that you summon the said JAMES USHER, JAMES's son, that he be before our said Justices of the Courts aforesaid, at Graham's Town, on the 19th day of August next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if he have any, why his Estate should not by sentence of the said Court be adjudged to be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors; and return you then and there this Summons, with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness: The Honourable EDWARD DWYER, Esq., Senior Judge of our said Court of the Eastern Districts, and one of the Judges of our Supreme Court aforesaid, at Graham's Town, this 22nd day of July, 1869.

JOHN J. GRAHAM, Acting Registrar of the Court of the Eastern Districts.

J. AYLIFF, No 14, High-street, Graham's Town,
Attorney for the said CHARLES HARLAND BELL.

XV. The returning officer shall, before the day appointed for taking the poll, transmit to the person appointed to take the poll at any polling place, a list of the registered voters for the division in which such polling place shall be situate, certified under the hand of the civil commissioner for such division to be correct. And the returning officer shall at the same time transmit to such polling officer the names of the eligible candidates, which shall forthwith be by him fixed up in some conspicuous place at such polling place.

XVII. No inquiry shall be permitted at the time of polling as to the right of any person to vote, except only as follows: that is to say, that the officer taking the poll shall, if required by or on behalf of any candidate, and of his own motion if it shall appear proper, put to any voter at the time of tendering his vote, and not afterwards, the following questions, or either of them, and none other:

But if in any case such returning officer shall find that by reason of any two or more candidates having received an equal number of votes, he cannot proclaim any one of them to have been duly elected, he shall call upon such candidates to draw lots publicly in his presence, either personally or by their agents duly appointed by writing under their hands, at some time and place to be by him fixed,—and shall thereafter proclaim as duly elected the candidate on whom the lot may fall,—and such returning officer shall then transmit to the Governor the name of the member elected.

XX. As soon as the Governor shall have received from the returning officers throughout the Colony the names of the members elected, he shall publish, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, the names of such members and of the electoral Circles which they respectively represent. And the day of the publication of such Proclamation shall for the purposes of the — section hereof, be deemed and taken to be the date of the election of all the elective members of the Legislative Council.

XXIII. Every person authorized by law to make an affirmation, instead of taking an oath, may make such affirmation in every case in which an oath is hereinbefore required to be taken.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for any registered voter to present to the said Council, through the President, a petition alleging in regard to any member, that he is not qualified in terms of the 9th section of the Act; and that the President shall, at the next sitting thereafter inform the Council of the receipt and contents of the petition, and if the member do not then admit the truth of the same, the Council shall appoint a time at which, without debate, it will choose a committee of three members for inquiring into the petition: and such committee shall be chosen by writing upon a separate piece of paper the name of each member of the said Council (not being related either to the member whose qualification is in question, or to the petitioner, within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity), which pieces of paper, being all as nearly as may be of equal size, shall be put together in a box to be provided for that purpose, and the Clerk of the Council shall draw out three of the said papers one after another, and the said three members so first drawn shall form the committee, and the said committee shall, with all convenient speed, inquire into the matter of the said petition to them referred, and shall hear what shall be urged on the part of the petition and on the part of the member whose qualification shall be questioned, and all the evidence offered by either of them, and shall then report to the Council the result of their inquiry, and if the said committee shall unanimously, or by a majority, report that the member whose qualifications shall have been so questioned is duly qualified, the petition shall be dismissed; and if the said committee shall unanimously or by a majority report that such member is not duly qualified, then such member shall, upon the bringing up of such report, be deemed and taken to have vacated his seat. No such petition shall be taken into consideration by the Council until the party petitioning shall have given security to the satisfaction of the President that he will duly pay and satisfy such sum or sums of money, if any, as he may be lawfully condemned or adjudged to pay under and by virtue of the provisions of the next succeeding section hereof.

XXV. When any petition shall, upon the report of any committee as aforesaid, be dismissed, the party petitioning shall be liable to pay to the member whose qualification shall have been called in question the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, together with and over and above any special damage, charges, or expenses which such member shall prove himself to have sustained from or expended by reason of the said petition, which sums shall be recovered by action in any competent court, together with costs of suit, unless the defendant shall in his defence succeed in proving, to the satisfaction of the said court, either that such member was not, when such petition was presented, duly qualified, or otherwise that he, the defendant, had, when such petition was presented reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not so qualified. When the said defendant shall fail in proving that such member was not, at the time aforesaid, duly qualified, but shall succeed in proving that he had reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not duly qualified, such defendant shall still be condemned in the costs of suit. And in case such defendant shall succeed in proving that such member was not at the time aforesaid duly qualified, such defendant shall be entitled to judgment in his favour, with the costs of suit.

BILL

TO

Authorize the Cape Copper Mining Company (Limited) to construct a Tramway or Railway between Port Nolloth and Nonams, and to build a Jetty at Port Nolloth.

WHEREAS it is desirable and expedient that greater facilities should be afforded for the transport of minerals from the mines in Namaqualand to Port Nolloth, and the shipment of the same at the said port, and also for the landing of passengers, goods, merchandize, and other articles, and their transport from the said port; and whereas such facilities would be greatly promoted and the resources of the country developed by the construction of a tramway or railway between the said port and Nonams, and by the building of a jetty at the said port; and whereas the Cape Copper Mining Company (limited), duly registered and having a subscribed capital of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling, is willing to undertake the construction and working of the said tramway or railway and the building of the said jetty, on being empowered for that purpose in manner hereinafter mentioned and provided: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, as follows:—

I. The Cape Copper Mining Company (limited) shall be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to construct and work a tramway or railway between Port Nolloth and Nonams, or any part thereof, and to build a jetty at Port Nolloth, as shown by the plans duly lodged with the Clerk of the House of Assembly and with the Civil Commissioner for the Division of Namaqualand.

II. It shall and may be lawful for the directors of the said company, or their representative or representatives, and they are hereby authorized, to enter upon and take possession of all such lands within the limits of deviation, and also to dig for, excavate, and carry away, all such materials within or near to the said limits as may be required for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty: Provided that the extent of land taken for the said tramway or railway shall not exceed the width of fifty feet, with sufficient additional width for slopes, drainage, stations, stopping-places, approach-roads, and all other works, matters, and things which may be requisite or necessary for the efficient construction and working of the said tramway or railway. And further, it shall and may be lawful for the said directors, or their representative or representatives, and they are hereby authorized, to enter upon and take possession of all such beach and other lands lying above and below high-water mark, and all such land as may be required for approaches to and site of the said jetty, as shown on the said plan, including forfeited erf 1,799, marked 8 on the said plan, in block C, and also including the road lying between blocks B and C, marked or numbered 14 on the said plan, and also the Government ground adjoining blocks B and C to the east, north, and west, as shown within the limits marked by a dotted line on the said plan: Provided that the proprietor or proprietors of, or person or persons holding by lease from the Crown the lands so taken possession of and of the materials so carried away and used, shall be paid by the said directors the just value, by way of recompense or compensation for such land or materials, or for any damage which may be done by reason thereof: Provided, also, that in the event of the directors of the said company and any such proprietor or proprietors or the person or persons claiming compensation not being able to agree upon the sum to be paid by the said directors and accepted by such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensasation, then the said directors shall cause to be served upon such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensation a written notice offering as recompense or compensation whatever sum of money they shall deem sufficient, and requiring such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensation to state, in writing, to the said directors or their representative, or to some person by them appointed in this Colony, within a certain limited time to be specified in the said notice, whether he or they is or are willing to accept the sum therein mentioned or not; and in case he or they shall refuse to accept the sum offered, or shall neglect to reply to the said notice, then the said directors or their representative shall, by another notice in writing, call upon such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensation to refer to arbitration the amount of recompense or compensation to be paid to him or them by the said directors, and for that purpose to transmit to their representative in this Colony, within a certain reasonable time to be specified in the said last-mentioned notice, the name of some person whom he or they shall select to be an arbitrator upon such arbitration; and the said directors or their said representative, upon receiving the name of the person so selected, shall nominate a second arbitrator, and the said arbitrators shall choose a third arbitrator, and the said directors or their representative shall cause a deed of submission to be prepared, which shall be signed by the agent, general manager, or representative of the said company in this Colony, and by the said proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming such recompense or compensation as aforesaid, and which deed shall clearly set forth the matter to be determined by the said arbitrators. And the said arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be authorized to fix and determine the amount of compensation to be paid as aforesaid, according to what they shall conceive fair and reasonable; and the award of the said arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be made a rule or order of the Supreme Court, and shall be binding and conclusive, and may be pleaded in bar of any action or proceeding at law brought for or on account of the subject-matter; and in case such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons as aforesaid claiming compensation or recompense shall neglect or refuse to name some person to be such arbitrator as aforesaid, or to sign the said deed of submission, then it shall be lawful for the said directors or their agent or representative, and they or either of them are hereby authorized to lodge in some joint-stock bank in Cape Town the sum of money offered by them as aforesaid, for or on account and at the risk of such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons as aforesaid, who shall at all times be entitled to draw the same out of the said bank as his or their absolute property. And the said directors or their agent or representative, upon so lodging the said sum, shall be authorized and entitled to take and use the land or materials in question as freely as if the said sum had been agreed upon between the parties as the sum to be paid, or had been awarded by the arbitrators. And thereupon, or upon payment of any sum which may be awarded, or which may be agreed to be accepted as and for recompense or compensation as aforesaid, the said land shall be held and taken to be vested in the said company as fully, absolutely, and effectually as if transfer and conveyance thereof had been duly passed by the respective proprietors thereof or parties interested therein, in favour of the said company, according to the law and custom of this Colony, or as if all acts by law required for vesting in the said company a sufficient title thereto had been duly done and performed; and the said materials shall be held and taken to be, and shall be, the free and absolute property of the said company: Provided that the cost of the arbitration as aforesaid shall be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

III. It shall and may be lawful for the said directors of the said company to enter upon and take possession of, and to hold and retain as their own absolute property, free of any charges, in like manner as if the same were granted to or transferred to them according to the law and custom of the Colony, so much of any Crown lands as shall be required for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty, or for any other purposes relating to the execution of this Act, and also to enter upon all Crown lands not previously leased by the Government to any lessee lying convenient to the said tramway or railway and jetty, and there to dig for, excavate, and carry away all such stones, clay, or other materials as may be required or be serviceable for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall establish any servitude in favour of the said directors or company for procuring materials for the said tramway or railway upon any land which may at any time hereafter be sold or leased by the Colonial Government to any purchaser or lessee thereof

IV. The said tramway or railway shall commence from the said jetty at Port Nolloth, and shall proceed thence to Jules Hoogte, thence to the Kama River, thence to Oograbis, thence to Anna Poort, thence along the plain by Muishondfontein to foot of mountain at Nonams: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the said company to deviate from and vary the said line within the limits of deviation shown by the said plans. And further, that it shall and may be lawful for the said company to terminate the line at any point between Port Nolloth and Nonams: Provided such terminal point shall be at a distance of not less than seventeen miles from Port Nolloth.

V. At all places where the line of the said tramway or railway or any deviation therefrom within the limits of deviation hereinbefore provided, shall intersect or cross the line of any public street or road it shall be lawful for the said directors to make and carry the said tramway or railway across such street or road, either by means of a level crossing or by a convenient and sufficient bridge or viaduct over or under the said street or road. And the said directors shall be bound and obliged to make all such cuttings, embankments, and approaches, with all such culverts and drains as may be requisite to make good the said street or road across, or over, or under the said tramway or railway, at gradients not exceeding one foot in twenty feet. And the said directors shall be bound and obliged to maintain and keep in repair all such crossings, bridges, viaducts, cuttings, embankments, and approaches, culverts and drains, as aforesaid.

VI. Nothing in this Act contained shall hinder or prevent any public roads hereafter to be constructed under Act of Parliament or proclamation lawfully issued under Act of Parliament, from being made and carried across the said tramway or railway at all requisite and convenient points: Provided that as little damage as possible shall be caused to the said tramway or railway by such crossings.

VII. All damage which may be caused by the construction of the said tramway or railway to any roads or streets shall be repaired and made good by the said company, so soon as practicable, at the cost and charge of the said company.

VIII. The directors of the said company shall be bound, and are hereby required, to finish and complete the first section of the said tramway or railway, extending from Port Nolloth to a point distant five miles or more, within eighteen months reckoned from the date of the first commencement thereof.

IX. So soon as the line of tramway or railway, or any section or sections thereof, and the said jetty, shall have been finished and in a fit condition for work, the directors, or their representative or representatives for the time being in this Colony, shall, and are hereby authorized, to open the same for traffic.

X. It shall and may be lawful for the said company, or their representative or representatives in the Colony, to frame terms and conditions and a tariff of charges for wharfage and for the conveyance of goods, and such terms, conditions, and tariff shall be submitted to the Governor for approval, and, if approved, shall be published in the Government Gazette for general information: Provided, always, that the said terms and conditions and the rates so chargeable may from time to time be altered by the directors, or their representative or representatives for the time being in the Colony, with consent of the Governor; and the directors, or their representative or representatives, shall be entitled to recover by legal process all such charges as shall be in force for the time being from the owner or owners of, or the person or persons liable to pay such charges on goods, merchandize, articles, or things landed on or shipped from the said jetty, or conveyed by the company on their said tramway or railway, and further shall have the right of retaining such goods, merchandize, articles, or things, or any other goods, merchandize, articles, or things belonging to the party or parties liable to them which may be in their possession or under their control, until the rates or charges due or payable for or in respect of the wharfage or carriage or conveyance thereof shall have been duly paid; and, further, on his or their failing to pay on demand such charges it shall and may be lawful for the said company, or their representative or representatives, to sell such goods, merchandize, articles, or things, and out of the money arising from such sale to retain the charges payable as aforesaid, and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, rendering the overplus, if any, and such goods as shall remain unsold, to the person or persons entitled thereto, or it shall be lawful for the said company, if they shall so elect, to recover any such charges by action at law: Provided that fourteen days' notice of such sale shall have been previously given in the Government Gazette, and in any one or more newspapers published in Cape Town.

XI. The directors of the said company shall be bound and obliged to establish and permit to be used so many stations or stopping-places upon the said line of tramway or railway for receiving and delivering goods, merchandize, minerals, or other articles to be conveyed upon the said tramway or railway or any portion thereof as the Governor shall from time to time direct to be established for public use, or for the use of any proprietors or lessees of mines or minerals requiring to use the said tramway or railway. And the said company shall at all times thereafter allow to the public, and to proprietors and lessees aforesaid, free and convenient way-leave and access to all such stations or stopping-places over all lands belonging to or in the possession or occupation of the said company, with all cattle and vehicles to be used for conveying passengers, goods, merchandize, minerals, or other articles, to and from such stations.

XII. The said company shall afford all reasonable facilities for the receiving, storing, forwarding, and delivering of traffic upon and from the said tramway and jetty, and no undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to or in favour of any particular person or persons, or any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, shall be given; nor shall the said company subject any particular person or persons, or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

XIII. All tolls, fares, or rates for passengers or goods shall be at all times charged equally to all persons, and after the same rate, whether per ton, per mile, or otherwise, in respect of all passengers, and of all goods of the same description, and conveyed or propelled in a like carriage and by a like power, passing only over the same portion of the line of tramway or railway, under the same circumstances; and no reduction or advance in any such tolls, fares, or rates shall be made, either directly or indirectly, in favour of or against any particular company or person travelling upon or using the tramway or railway.

XIV. No steam power shall be used for the conveyance of passengers upon the said tramway or railway until the certificate of the Colonial Engineer or other officer appointed by the Governor shall have been obtained, at the expense of the directors, that the said tramway or railway or any section thereof is in a fit and proper condition for the safe conveyance of goods or passengers by means of such steam power: Provided, that before any passengers shall be conveyed on the said tramway or railway, the said directors shall frame terms and conditions and a tariff of charges for the conveyance of such passengers, and the provisions of the tenth section hereinbefore contained shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such terms, conditions, and tariff.

XV. From and after the adoption of steam power, subject to such certificate as aforesaid, as the means of conveying or propelling trucks or carriages of any description with passengers, such and so many of the provisions of the "Regulation of Railways Act, 1861," as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall by any proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette specify and determine, shall come into force, and apply to the said tramway or railway hereby authorized to be constructed and made, as if the said provisions were herein separately set forth and made applicable to the same: Provided, however, and it is hereby declared, that Clauses 29 and 30 of the said Act shall not be made applicable to the said tramway or railway.

XVI. The Colonial Government shall have the right of sanctioning any junction of branch lines communicating with the said line of tramway or railway, from or for the use of any mines which may be opened in Namaqualand, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the person or persons desiring to have and maintain such branch line and junction and the directors of the said company and in case of any question or controversy as to such terms and conditions, such question shall be referred to three persons, one to be nominated by the Governor, one to be nominated by the directors of the said company, and the other to be nominated by the person or persons seeking to establish such junction; and the decision of any two or more of such three persons shall be final. The costs of every such arbitration to be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

XVII. It shall and may be lawful for the said company, at any time after they shall have offered the said tramway or railway and jetty to the Government for purchase, at a price to be settled by arbitration, provided both parties cannot agree upon the terms of purchase, and in case such offer shall be refused, to remove and carry away all plant and material from the said tramway or railway and jetty; and further, it shall and may be lawful for the said company, in case of such refusal as aforesaid, to sell and dispose of all their right, title, and interest in the said tramway or railway and jetty to any other company or companies, or private individuals, desirous of purchasing the same, and the company or companies, or individuals, who shall become the purchasers thereof, shall be vested with or entitled to the said tramway or railway and jetty, and to all rights or privileges appertaining thereto, as amply and effectually as the same are now vested in the said company.

XVIII. All engines, plant, machinery, coals, and other articles required for the construction of the said tramway or railway and jetty shall be admitted into the Colony free of Customs duty and of dues of wharfage.

XIX. At any time after the expiration of ten years from the date of opening for traffic any section of this line from Port Nolloth to Nonams, the Colonial Government shall, if so disposed, have the right of purchasing from the Cape Copper Mining Company (limited) the said tramway or railway and jetty, and the said company shall, if required thereto, be bound to sell it to the Colonial Government on being paid an amount not exceeding the cost of construction and equipment of the said line or jetty, to be agreed between the Colonial Government and the said company.

XX. The said directors shall and may sue and be sued within this Colony by the name or style of the "Cape Copper Mining Company (limited)," and service of process upon the said company, at any office, or place of business thereof in this Colony, shall be good service of such process.

XXI. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Port Nolloth Tramway or Railway and Jetty Act."

In the Court of the Eastern Districts
of the Cape of Good Hope.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith.

To the Sheriff of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, or his lawful Deputy,—Greeting.

WHEREAS, upon the Petition to the Honourable EDWARD DWYER, Esq., and the Honourable CHARLES THOMAS SMITH, Esq., the Judges of the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, and Judges of our Supreme Court of our said Colony, of NATHANIEL HOWSE and GEORGE REYNOLDS, carrying on Business together in Graham's Town under the Style or Firm of HOWSE, REYNOLDS, & COMPANY, against HEINRICH OLLESCH, lately of Graham's Town, it appears to us that the said HEINRICH OLLESCH is justly indebted unto the said Firm of HOWSE, REYNOLDS, & COMPANY in the sum of Four Hundred and Sixty-one Pounds Three Shillings and Six Pence Half-penny Sterling, upon and being the balance of the three following Promissory Notes, that is to say,—

First. A certain Promissory Note for the sum of Eighty-one Pounds Five Shillings and Nine Pence Sterling, bearing date the Twenty-fifth day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-seven, made and signed by the said HEINRICH OLLESCH, payable six months after the date thereof to the said HOWSE, REYNOLDS, & COMPANY, or order, for Merchandize received.

Second. A certain Promissory Note for the sum of Ninety-seven Pounds and Seven Pence Half-penny Sterling, bearing date the Twenty-eighth day of November, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-seven, made and signed and payable as aforesaid;

Third. A certain Promissory Note for the sum of Four Hundred and Two Pounds Four Shillings and Six Pence Sterling, bearing date the Fourth day of March, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-eight, made and signed and payable as aforesaid; and that in the Month of March, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-eight, the said HEINRICH OLLESCH departed from his Dwelling-house, with intent to defeat the said HOWSE REYNOLDS, & COMPANY in obtaining payment of their just Debts to them due and owing, and did thereby commit an act of Insolvency; whereupon the said HOWSE, REYNOLDS, & COMPANY prayed that the Estate of the said HEINRICH OLLESCH might be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors;

And whereas it further appears to us of record that the Honourable the said Judges of our said Court did, by order bearing date the Second day of August, instant, place the Estate of the said HEINRICH OLLESCH under Sequestration, in the hands of the Master of the Supreme Court, until the same should be hereafter adjudged to be Sequestrated, or the said Petition should be discharged;

Now, therefore, we command you that you summon the said HEINRICH OLLESCH, that he be before our Justices of our said Court, at Graham's Town, on the Twenty-sixth day of August, 1869, instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if he have any, why his Estate should not by sentence of the said Judges be adjudged to be Sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors; and return you then and there this Summons, with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness: The Honourable EDWARD DWYER, Esq., Senior Judge of our said Court of the Eastern Districts, at Graham's Town, this 3rd day of August, 1869.

of the Court of the Eastern Districts.

The Contract to commence (on such date as shall be fixed by the Postmaster-General after 1st January, 1870), and to terminate on the 31st December, 1872, but either of the contracting parties will be at liberty to terminate the same upon giving four months' notice, in writing, to that effect.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

No Tender will be attended to unless prepared in proper form, in conformity with this Notice, and of which copies may be obtained either at this Office, or that of the respective Civil Commissioners and Postmasters.

The Tenders must include all intermediate Post Offices between Stations.

It is desired that the Tenderers should state the number of relays of Horses to be used, and the Stations at which they will be kept; as, also, at what price they will engage to convey extra Posts or Expresses on Horseback on the Post Line for which they tender.

Payment will be made to the Contractor monthly, either at the Colonial Treasury in Cape Town, or by the Civil Commissioner of any Division he may select; provided the Contract Bond shall previously have been transmitted to this Office, duly completed, which Bond the Contractor will be required to execute in the presence of two competent Witnesses, together with two good and approved Sureties, to be provided by him, for the due fulfilment of the Contract; and he must accompany his Tender with a written engagement from his Sureties to bind themselves as such; as, also, with a Certificate from the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate of the District in which he resides, as to the sufficiency of such Sureties. In the Tender, the names of the Contractor and his Sureties should be stated at full length, and their respective occupations should also be mentioned therein. The Security required will, in each case, be equal to the payment to be made by Government to the Contractor for one year of the Contract.

The Contractor will be required to provide his own means of conveyance for crossing rivers, without detention; and all penalties for delay, from whatever cause arising, will be rigidly exacted. Any party tendering is required to specify in his Tender the means to be adopted by him for crossing or avoiding swollen rivers, either by applying some contrivance, or leaving the usual line, and also the delay, if any, to be allowed on such occasions.

The Tenderers are required to convey the Mails in covered Carts on springs, conveyed by not fewer than two horses each (with exception of Blinkwater and Post Retief).

The Contractor's Carts are to be light, but strong, sufficiently large to contain the Mail Bags, and to be furnished with Waterproof Wells, or Boxes, with strong Locks and Keys, to hold the Mail Packets, for enclosing and securing which it will be necessary for the Contractor to supply Waterproof Bags; or, failing these, the Cart is to be supplied with Tarpaulins, to be strapped over it and over any Mail Packets that may have to be secured to it, and which are to be lashed on with good stout riems. The Carts to be provided with two good Lamps, with strong Reflectors, which are to be kept lighted at night when travelling.

The Contractor is bound, at his own expense, to provide the means of protecting the Mail Packets from the weather, or injury in transferring them from one Post Cart to another, on the line of road herein referred to, and will be held responsible for any damage which may occur to them whilst being transferred from his charge.

The Contractor will be at liberty to carry such number of Passengers or Parcels in the Mail Vehicle as he may think fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded; provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart specially to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or Newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respective Postmasters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

	£	s.	d
For every period not exceeding half an hour –	0	2	6
„ half an hour, and not exceeding one hour –	0	7	6
„ one hour, and not exceeding an hour and a half – – – – – – – – –	0	15	0
„ one hour and a half, and not exceeding two hours – – – – – – – –	1	5	0
two hours, and not exceeding two hours and a half – – – – – – – –	2	0	0

and for every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a half, the additional sum of Ten Shillings.

In the event of the Contractor failing or neglecting for three Posts in succession to convey the Mails within the time herein stipulated, the Postmaster-General for the time being, in that case to have it in his power, should he so think fit, to advertise for Tenders for a new Contract without any reference to the clause for giving four months' notice for an earlier termination thereof (which clause is to be null and void); and any loss that may accrue by reason that the terms of the new Contract are higher than the terms of the old is to be borne by the Contractor.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other part of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorized by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof; and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

CHARLES PIERS, Postmaster-General.

BILL

TO

Make provision for the more easy collection of Hut Tax.

(Transmitted to the House of Assembly by His Excellency the Governor.)

WHEREAS difficulties have arisen from time to time in collecting from persons residing on certain Crown lands reserved for the purposes of native tribes within this Colony, commonly known as Native Locations, occupation rents for huts or dwellings erected or occupied by natives on the Crown lands within such reserves or locations, which rent has been commonly called hut tax. And whereas it is expedient that the law as to such occupation rents or hut tax should be declared, and that facilities should be given for enforcing the payment thereof: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for the civil commissioner of the division, within which any such native location as aforesaid shall be situate, or for any other person thereto authorized by the Governor by publication of such authority in the Government Gazette, to demand and sue for, receive, and give receipts for a sum of ten shillings yearly, to be paid by the occupier of, or person using or claiming every hut erected or standing for the time being on any Crown land within any such native location as aforesaid, occupied, or used, or claimed within the same for any portion of any such year in respect whereof such sum is or shall be demanded or received, a separate sum of ten shillings being demandable and payable in respect of each such hut occupied, or used, or claimed by him in any such year.

II. In case default shall be made by the person liable to pay any such sum of ten shillings in respect of any such hut in any year within three calendar months, after the same shall become due and payable, it shall be lawful for such civil commissioner or other person authorized to demand the same as aforesaid, in addition to the ordinary remedy by action for the recovery of such sum, to levy such sum by attaching and seizing to answer the same, and the costs of such levy and seizure and subsequent proceedings, a sufficient amount of the cattle, stock, and other movable property of the person liable to pay the same, and if payment shall not be made of such demand and the costs lawfully incurred in respect of such levy and seizure within ——— days after such seizure shall have been made, such cattle, stock, and other movable property shall be sold by public auction, or a sufficient part thereof to answer the demand and the costs of levy and seizure and sale, unless before such sale shall have been actually made the person claiming such cattle, stock, and movable property shall commence in some competent court an action for the recovery of such cattle, stock, and movable property, and shall also find and give sufficient security to prosecute such action without delay, and abide and perform the judgment thereof in the premises, which judgment, if adverse to the plaintiff, may be not only for the amount of hut tax for which such seizure as aforesaid shall have been made, but also for the costs of such levy and seizure lawfully incurred up to the time of such security as aforesaid being duly given as well as for the costs of the action itself.

III. Upon such security as in the last clause mentioned being given, and approved of by the court in which the action for the recovery of the said cattle, stock, and movable property shall have been commenced, the said cattle, stock, and movable property shall be redelivered to the person claiming the same.

IV. Such sum of ten shillings shall become due and payable in each year on the ——— day of ——— in respect of the year ending on such day, and shall thereupon be paid by the person liable to pay the same to such civil commissioner or other person duly authorized as aforesaid, at the office of such civil commissioner, or such other place as the Governor shall by proclamation appoint for that purpose, as regards each such location, without the necessity of any demand being made therefor.

V. In case no person can be found who shall claim or shall have occupied or used any hut chargeable under this Act at any time during the year ending with the ——— day of ——— in any year, the civil commissioner, or such other person so authorized as aforesaid, may cause such hut to be destroyed.

BILL

FOR

The Better Protection of Bees.

(Transmitted to the House of Assembly by His Excellency the Governor.)

WHEREAS it is expedient, with a view to increasing the production of Honey and Bees' Wax in this Colony, to prevent, by legal enactment, the wasteful destruction of bees and the nests or hives of bees, whether wild or domesticated: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. Every nest or hive of bees, whether wild or domesticated, which shall be formed or made or kept on any land the property of a private individual in this Colony, together with all the bees and honey and wax that may be contained in any such nest or hive, shall be deemed to be the property of the person occupying such land, unless by contract with the true owner of such nest or hive of bees, in case the same be domesticated, the person occupying such land shall have agreed that such nest or hive shall be or remain on such land without prejudice to the right of ownership of such owner in such nest or hive, and the bees, honey, and wax thereof, or any of such things respectively.

II. Any person who shall remove, or attempt to remove, any such nest, hive, bees' wax, or honey, not being the true owner thereof under contract as aforesaid, without the permission of such occupier, or who shall wilfully injure or destroy the same, may on conviction be fined any sum not exceeding ———, and in default of payment of the same may be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding ———, or may be imprisoned, without the infliction of any fine, at the discretion of the magistrate, with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding ———.

III. Any person having in his possession or conveying in any manner any bees' nest or hive, or bees, or honey, or wax, which may reasonably be suspected to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, and who shall not give an account to the satisfaction of the resident magistrate how he came by the same, may be fined any sum not exceeding ———, and in default of payment of the same may be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding ———, or may be imprisoned, without the infliction of any fine, at the discretion of the magistrate, with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding ———.

IV. No payment shall be made out of the public revenue for the expenses of any prosecution to be instituted under this Act; but it shall be lawful for the magistrate in any case in which the offender shall be fined and shall pay such fine, to award one half of such fine to the person by whom such offender shall have been prosecuted.

V. Nothing in this Act shall be held to prejudice or affect the rights of any true owner of any hive of domesticated bees to assert his property herein save as is hereinbefore expressly provided at the common law of this Colony, nor to alter the common law in respect to theft of any such hive, or the honey, wax, or bees thereof, or to injury done to any property therein.

The Contractor is bound, at his own expense, to provide the means of protecting the Mail Packets from the weather, or injury in transferring them from one Post Cart to another, on the line of road herein referred to, and will be held responsible for any damage which may occur to them whilst being transferred from his charge.

The Contractor will be at liberty to carry such number of Passengers or Parcels in the Mail Vehicle as he may think fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded; provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart specially to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respect ive Postmasters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

	£	s.	d.
For every period not exceeding half an hour –	0	2	6
„ half an hour, and not exceeding one hour –	0	7	6
„ one hour, and not exceeding an hour and a half – – – – – – – – –	0	15	0
„ one hour and a half, and not exceeding two hours – – – – – – – –	1	5	0
two hours, and not exceeding two hours and a half – – – – – – – –	2	0	0

and for every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a half, the additional sum of Ten Shillings.

In the event of the Contractor failing or neglecting for three Posts in succession to convey the Mails within the time herein stipulated, the Postmaster-General for the time being, in that case to have it in his power, should he so think fit, to advertise for Tenders for a new Contract without any reference to the clause for giving four months' notice for an earlier termination thereof (which clause is to be null and void); and any loss that may accrue by reason that the terms of the new Contract are higher than the terms of the old is to be borne by the Contractor.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other part of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorised by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof; and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

TO

Authorize the Cape Copper Mining Company (Limited) to construct a Tramway or Railway between Port Nolloth and Nonams, and to build a Jetty at Port Nolloth.

WHEREAS it is desirable and expedient that greater facilities should be afforded for the transport of minerals from the mines in Namaqualand to Port Nolloth, and the shipment of the same at the said port, and also for the landing of passengers, goods, merchandize, and other articles, and their transport from the said port; and whereas such facilities would be greatly promoted and the resources of the country developed by the construction of a tramway or railway between the said port and Nonams, and by the building of a jetty at the said port; and whereas the Cape Copper Mining Company (limited), duly registered and having a subscribed capital of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling, is willing to undertake the construction and working of the said tramway or railway and the building of the said jetty, on being empowered for that purpose in manner hereinafter mentioned and provided: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, as follows:—

I. The Cape Copper Mining Company (limited) shall be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to construct and work a tramway or railway between Port Nolloth and Nonams, or any part thereof, and to build a jetty at Port Nolloth, as shown by the plans duly lodged with the Clerk of the House of Assembly and with the Civil Commissioner for the Division of Namaqualand.

II. It shall and may be lawful for the directors of the said company, or their representative or representatives, and they are hereby authorized, to enter upon and take possession of all such lands within the limits of deviation, and also to dig for, excavate, and carry away, all such materials within or near to the said limits as may be required for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty: Provided that the extent of land taken for the said tramway or railway shall not exceed the width of fifty feet, with sufficient additional width for slopes, drainage, stations, stopping-places, approach-roads, and all other works, matters, and things which may be requisite or necessary for the efficient construction and working of the said tramway or railway. And further, it shall and may be lawful for the said directors, or their representative or representatives, and they are hereby authorized, to enter upon and take possession of all such beach and other lands lying above and below high-water mark, and all such land as may be required for approaches to and site of the said jetty, as shown on the said plan, including forfeited erf 1,799, marked 8 on the said plan, in block C, and also including the road lying between blocks B and C, marked or numbered 14 on the said plan, and also the Government ground adjoining blocks B and C to the east, north, and west, as shown within the limits marked by a dotted line on the said plan: Provided that the proprietor or proprietors of, or person or persons holding by lease from the Crown the lands so taken possession of and of the materials so carried away and used, shall be paid by the said directors the just value, by way of recompense or compensation for such land or materials, or for any damage which may be done by reason thereof: Provided, also, that in the event of the directors of the said company and any such proprietor or proprietors or the person or persons claiming compensation not being able to agree upon the sum to be paid by the said directors and accepted by such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensasation, then the said directors shall cause to be served upon such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensation a written notice offering as recompense or compensation whatever sum of money they shall deem sufficient, and requiring such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensation to state, in writing, to the said directors or their representative, or to some person by them appointed in this Colony, within a certain limited time to be specified in the said notice, whether he or they is or are willing to accept the sum therein mentioned or not; and in case he or they shall refuse to accept the sum offered, or shall neglect to reply to the said notice, then the said directors or their representative shall, by another notice in writing, call upon such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming compensation to refer to arbitration the amount of recompense or compensation to be paid to him or them by the said directors, and for that purpose to transmit to their representative in this Colony, within a certain reasonable time to be specified in the said last-mentioned notice, the name of some person whom he or they shall select to be an arbitrator upon such arbitration; and the said directors or their said representative, upon receiving the name of the person so selected, shall nominate a second arbitrator, and the said arbitrators shall choose a third arbitrator, and the said directors or their representative shall cause a deed of submission to be prepared, which shall be signed by the agent, general manager, or representative of the said company in this Colony, and by the said proprietor or proprietors or person or persons claiming such recompense or compensatien as aforesaid, and which deed shall clearly set forth the matter to be determined by the said arbitrators. And the said arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be authorized to fix and determine the amount of compensation to be paid as aforesaid, according to what they shall conceive fair and reasonable; and the award of the said arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be made a rule or order of the Supreme Court, and shall be binding and conclusive, and may be pleaded in bar of any action or proceeding at law brought for or on account of the subject-matter; and in case such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons as aforesaid claiming compensation or recompense shall neglect or refuse to name some person to be such arbitrator as aforesaid, or to sign the said deed of submission, then it shall be lawful for the said directors or their agent or representative, and they or either of them are hereby authorized to lodge in some joint-stock bank in Cape Town the sum of money offered by them as aforesaid, for or on account and at the risk of such proprietor or proprietors or person or persons as aforesaid, who shall at all times be entitled to draw the same out of the said bank as his or their absolute property. And the said directors or their agent or representative, upon so lodging the said sum, shall be authorized and entitled to take and use the land or materials in question as freely as if the said sum had been agreed upon between the parties as the sum to be paid, or had been awarded by the arbitrators. And thereupon, or upon payment of any sum which may be awarded, or which may be agreed to be accepted as and for recompense or compensation as aforesaid, the said land shall be held and taken to be vested in the said company as fully, absolutely, and effectually as if transfer and conveyance thereof had been duly passed by the respective proprietors thereof or parties interested therein, in favour of the said company, according to the law and custom of this Colony, or as if all acts by law required for vesting in the said company a sufficient title thereto had been duly done and performed; and the said materials shall be held and taken to be, and shall be, the free and absolute property of the said company: Provided that the cost of the arbitration as aforesaid shall be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

III. It shall and may be lawful for the said directors of the said company to enter upon and take possession of, and to hold and retain as their own absolute property, free of any charges, in like manner as if the same were granted to or transferred to them according to the law and custom of the Colony, so much of any Crown lands as shall be required for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty, or for any other purposes relating to the execution of this Act, and also to enter upon all Crown lands not previously leased by the Government to any lessee lying convenient to the said tramway or railway and jetty, and there to dig for, excavate, and carry away all such stones, clay, or other materials as may be required or be serviceable for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall establish any servitude in favour of the said directors or company for procuring materials for the said tramway or railway upon any land which may at any time hereafter be sold or leased by the Colonial Government to any purchaser or lessee thereof

IV. The said tramway or railway shall commence from the said jetty at Port Nolloth, and shall proceed thence to Jules Hoogte, thence to the Kama River, thence to Oograbis, thence to Anna Poort, thence along the plain by Muishondfontein to foot of mountain at Nonams: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the said company to deviate from and vary the said line within the limits of deviation shown by the said plans. And further, that it shall and may be lawful for the said company to terminate the line at any point between Port Nolloth and Nonams: Provided such terminal point shall be at a distance of not less than seventeen miles from Port Nolloth.

V. At all places where the line of the said tramway or railway or any deviation therefrom within the limits of deviation hereinbefore provided, shall intersect or cross the line of any public street or road it shall be lawful for the said directors to make and carry the said tramway or railway across such street or road, either by means of a level crossing or by a convenient and sufficient bridge or viaduct over or under the said street or road. And the said directors shall be bound and obliged to make all such cuttings, embankments, and approaches, with all such culverts and drains as may be requisite to make good the said street or road across, or over, or under the said tramway or railway, at gradients not exceeding one foot in twenty feet. And the said directors shall be bound and obliged to maintain and keep in repair all such crossings, bridges, viaducts, cuttings, embankments, and approaches, culverts and drains, as aforesaid.

VI. Nothing in this Act contained shall hinder or prevent any public roads hereafter to be constructed under Act of Parliament or proclamation lawfully issued under Act of Parliament, from being made and carried across the said tramway or railway at all requisite and convenient points: Provided that as little damage as possible shall be caused to the said tramway or railway by such crossings.

VII. All damage which may be caused by the construction of the said tramway or railway to any roads or streets shall be repaired and made good by the said company, so soon as practicable, at the cost and charge of the said company.

VIII The directors of the said company shall be bound, and are hereby required, to finish and complete the first section of the said tramway or railway, extending from Port Nolloth to a point distant five miles or more, within eighteen months reckoned from the date of the first commencement thereof.

IX. So soon as the line of tramway or railway, or any section or sections thereof, and the said jetty, shall have been finished and in a fit condition for work, the directors, or their representative or representatives for the time being in this Colony, shall, and are hereby authorized, to open the same for traffic.

X. It shall and may be lawful for the said company, or their epresentative or representatives in the Colony, to frame terms and onditions and a tariff of charges for wharfage and for the convey ance of goods, and such terms, conditions, and tariff shall be submitted to the Governor for approval, and, if approved, shall be published in the Government Gazette for general information: Provided, always, that the said terms and conditions and the rates so chargeable may from time to time be altered by the directors, or their representative or representatives for the time being in the Colony, with consent of the Governor; and the directors, or their representative or representatives, shall be entitled to recover by legal process all such charges as shall be in force for the time being from the owner or owners of, or the person or persons liable to pay such charges on goods, merchandise, articles, or things landed on or shipped from the said jetty, or conveyed by the company on their said tramway or railway, and further shall have the right of retaining such goods, merchandize, articles, or things, or any other goods, merchandize, articles, or things belonging to the party or parties liable to them which may be in their possession or under their control, until the rates or charges due or payable for or in respect of the wharfage or carriage or conveyance thereof shall have been duly paid; and, further, on his or their failing to pay on demand such charges it shall and may be lawful for the said company, or their representative or representatives, to sell such goods, merchandize, articles, or things, and out of the money arising from such sale to retain the charges payable as aforesaid, and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, rendering the overplus, if any, and such goods as shall remain unsold, to the person or persons entitled thereto, or it shall be lawful for the said company, if they shall so elect, to recover any such charges by action at law: Provided that fourteen days' notice of such sale shall have been previously given in the Government Gazette, and in any one or more newspapers published in Cape Town.

XI. The directors of the said company shall be bound and obliged to establish and permit to be used so many stations or stopping-places upon the said line of tramway or railway for receiving and delivering goods, merchandize, minerals, or other articles to be conveyed upon the said tramway or railway or any portion thereof as the Governor shall from time to time direct to be established for public use, or for the use of any proprietors or lessees of mines or minerals requiring to use the said tramway or railway. And the said company shall at all times thereafter allow to the public, and to proprietors and lessees aforesaid, free and convenient way-leave and access to all such stations or stopping-places over all lands belonging to or in the possession or occupation of the said company, with all cattle and vehicles to be used for conveying passengers, goods, merchandize, minerals, or other articles, to and from such stations.

XII. The said company shall afford all reasonable facilities for the receiving, storing, forwarding, and delivering of traffic upon and from the said tramway and jetty, and no undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to or in favour of any particular person or persons, or any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, shall be given; nor shall the said company subject any particular person or persons, or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

XIII. All tolls, fares, or rates for passengers or goods shall be at all times charged equally to all persons, and after the same rate, whether per ton, per mile, or otherwise, in respect of all passengers, and of all goods of the same description, and conveyed or propelled in a like carriage and by a like power, passing only over the same portion of the line of tramway or railway, under the same circumstances; and no reduction or advance in any such tolls, fares, or rates shall be made, either directly or indirectly, in favour of or against any particular company or person travelling upon or using the tramway or railway.

XIV. No steam power shall be used for the conveyance of passengers upon the said tramway or railway until the certificate of the Colonial Engineer or other officer appointed by the Governor shall have been obtained, at the expense of the directors, that the said tramway or railway or any section thereof is in a fit and proper condition for the safe conveyance of goods or passengers by means of such steam power: Provided, that before any passengers shall be conveyed on the said tramway or railway, the said directors shall frame terms and conditions and a tariff of charges for the conveyance of such passengers, and the provisions of the tenth section hereinbefore contained shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such terms, conditions, and tariff.

XV. From and after the adoption of steam power, subject to such certificate as aforesaid, as the means of conveying or propelling trucks or carriages of any description with passengers, such and so many of the provisions of the "Regulation of Railways Act, 1861," as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall by any proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette specify and determine, shall come into force, and apply to the said tramway or railway hereby authorized to be constructed and made, as if the said provisions were herein separately set forth and made applicable to the same: Provided, however, and it is hereby declared, that Clauses 29 and 30 of the said Act shall not be made applicable to the said tramway or railway.

XVI. The Colonial Government shall have the right of sanctioning any junction of branch lines communicating with the said line of tramway or railway, from or for the use of any mines which may be opened in Namaqualand, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the person or persons desiring to have and maintain such branch line and junction and the directors of the said company and in case of any question or controversy as to such terms and conditions, such question shall be referred to three persons, one to be nominated by the Governor, one to be nominated by the directors of the said company, and the other to be nominated by the person or persons seeking to establish such junction; and the decision of any two or more of such three persons shall be final. The costs of every such arbitration to be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

XVII. It shall and may be lawful for the said company, at any time after they shall have offered the said tramway or railway and jetty to the Government for purchase, at a price to be settled by arbitration, provided both parties cannot agree upon the terms of purchase, and in case such offer shall be refused, to remove and carry away all plant and material from the said tramway or railway and jetty; and further, it shall and may be lawful for the said company, in case of such refusal as aforesaid, to sell and dispose of all their right, title, and interest in the said tramway or railway and jetty to any other company or companies, or private individuals, desirous of purchasing the same, and the company or companies, or individuals, who shall become the purchasers thereof, shall be vested with or entitled to the said tramway or railway and jetty, and to all rights or privileges appertaining thereto, as amply and effectually as the same are now vested in the said company.

XVIII. All engines, plant, machinery, coals, and other articles required for the construction of the said tramway or railway and jetty shall be admitted into the Colony free of Customs duty and of dues of wharfage.

XIX. At any time after the expiration of ten years from the date of opening for traffic any section of this line from Port Nolloth to Nonams, the Colonial Government shall, if so disposed, have the right of purchasing from the Cape Copper Mining Company (limited) the said tramway or railway and jetty, and the said company shall, if required thereto, be bound to sell it to the Colonial Government on being paid an amount not exceeding the cost of construction and equipment of the said line or jetty, to be agreed between the Colonial Government and the said company.

XX. The said directors shall and may sue and be sued within this Colony by the name or style of the "Cape Copper Mining Company (limited)," and service of process upon the said company, at any office, or place of business thereof in this Colony, shall be good service of such process.

XXI. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Port Nolloth Tramway or Railway and Jetty Act."
